It also doesn't help to post secret spots like that on forums, cuz when u use them, everyone knows about it. I prefer to keep my special spots a secret.

I found what I can say for now is an excellent sniper spot in city/city_flying. But I think WW put a barrier (couldn't tell, it could have easily been lag after all) to keep people from using it. It's not by the polls of the sign either. Anyway, I've know that for some time. I was hiding there as Raveshaw and got some mean hits off several GDI vehicles till they finally wised up and found me.

... I was found, a medium tank driver saw me/my gun shot and killed me asap. Took him a few shots though since I was behind something.
