hello, if any one knows the answer to my Q its got to be here. I just started playing renegade online for the first online game i ever played. i downloaded the free game spy thing and was playing the game. every time i play online my character is moving around where i dont want him too. its like 2 people are trying to controll my character. i try to get in to a humv and cannot ect, it make for near impossable play. one person said some thing about lagging but idk. any help would be awsome as i relly want to play it online and im the very best shootem up video game players i know or ever knew any one help me out and ill play on your team.

You use WASD, not the arrows, right? That can make the difference from what you posted, to how the game is supposed to be played.

Nope. Try disabling your firewall and stopping all downloads while playing.

Ingame, type F8 , then "FPS" , then hit enter. Your ping, FPS and SFPS will show up. Tell us what average values they give you (more or less).

When you say "free game spy thing" I assume you pirated the game? If so, to play on Xwis(WOL) you need a legal serial key(as in from a legally bought game).

Just FYI.
