Last night i got force RG'd from there, i dunno if this is the right place to post but what is up with that? I thought renguard didnt work for shit? Only caused problems like random crashing.. yeah, so uhh.. unforged RG iamrakton if u can be assed I dont want to make an account for n00bstories forums or w/e

Its the only server that stays active late US nights, and thats bullshit that you let your mods kick me for not having renguard

The best response you will get from this forum is: go to n00bstories.com...

But when you go there you won't get anywhere either... as they are apparently gonna stick to RG untill the TT patch (scripts 4.0) comes out.

So in short, if you want to play there you will most likely have to go get RG again... no matter what problems you have had with it in the past.

You may get a response here from someone who is actually staff there... but they may not take to kindly to the way you expressed your concern.

Sorry and good luck.

Why is this posted here? It should be in Renguard Network Bans, so it can be ridiculed for being posted in the wrong place there.

You don't run scripts either

But yeah..we're sticking with RG until TT comes out.

Get RG = u can play.

Don't get it = Play somewhere else.

I've never cheated, i was just banned from n00bstories like 6-7 years ago for having infinite ammo in a ss either way, i figured you atleast knew who I was enough to know I don't cheat Crimson.. oh well

I tried to argue it was just one of the first modded servers with infinite ammo, but you decided a perm ban was better
Isn't that cheating? :V

Lo?I

It is what it is, I posted a ss on n00bstories forums years ago that had infinite ammo on my sniper rifle.. might sound stupid now but back then all the servers weren't modded and it looked really fishy, i still don't know why i had infinite ammo honestly. either a glitch or a very early server mod, guess crimson never forgot about it lol

Was the screenshot taken on a n00bstories server? If so I don't think they had an unlimited ammo mod.

what does it matter? Even if I did download an ammo cheat (which I didn't) that ban has long been served

I've had my ammo glitch before, where it would appear as 999. Last I recall, it was just the regular minigun. Other people have had it happen too. :/

Karmai=cheater.

I got forcerg'd way to much @ NS, so i simply stopped playing there. At least go with RR if you're gonna go with an anti-cheat system. Renguard blows.

I'm sure I could download renguard and it would work, i'm just asking myself what is the point..
does it stop ROF, or RGH? or Velocity?

From what I hear all it does is make your game crash at random times, I could download renguard.. i just would rather not.

yeah renguard is completly useless so i dont know why anyone would ever make that pos mandatory, however... ban karmai no matter WHAT he says!

Now that isn't true. It prevents mod nicks from getting spoofed!

The funny part about mod nicks not being spoofed because of RG is... only the mods would need to use RG to auth, forcing anybody that is halfway decent makes no sense.
