Hi all,

Never believed this day will come but here it is. The past couple weeks I just realized that I no longer enjoy the game as I used to. I have felt this way before only to return a week or so later but this time it is sadly different and I am afraid this is it.

Just wanted to say it was a very good 3 years and I enjoyed the game a lot. It no longer thrills me anymore I am sad to say.

It was a lot of fun for me as this was the first game I ever played online. I remember the exciting "firsts" in Ren for me as I started playing, then got the hang of the game, then played and played till I got to do something in-game I enjoyed, joining a clan, learning how to skin (lol)...slowly all the glamour has decreased and now the game itself no longer appeals to me.

It was a nice time at the forums as well as this was the first ever forum I ever signed up in. And I got to meet a lot of friends and get exposed to many new ideas as well. Great things.

Just am done with the game and I felt it would be nice to say goodbye to the forum folks here as I frequented Renforums everyday almost the past 3 years. I hope you all have a great time in the years to come and I wish good for the game.

To all my close friends here whom I got to know a lot the past years and those who trusted me as friends do, I say a very sincere thank you for everything and all your help.

Later mates.

Sucks. Hope to see you around still, though.

I still come back to Renegade even though I hardly play much on average nowadays.

I wouldn't be surprised if you came back.

I quit playing Renegade for about a month awhile ago, and I came back. I play it at least once or twice a week still. I'll keep playing until it pretty much dies completely.

The others are right, in my 8 years of Renegade, I've left and came back many times. Sometimes I'd leave for a couple months, then load it up one day and remember why I love the game so much. Taking breaks is good because it keeps the game fresh, but yeah, there really aren't many games out there that keep you hooked years at a time.

Just me and my Starcraft, Diablo, Warcraft and collection of C&C games. It all rotates on a list.

Don't worry, StarCraft II is coming, and it will be the salvation your boredom seeks.

It will also be the salvation of the start of my record being cleaned up but anyway on topic: I think you should at least play once or twice a certain time span. IE: a month, 2 months, a year, etc.

I stopped playing Renegade for almost a year once.

Also, just because you decide to stop playing the game doesn't mean you have to stop visiting the forums. 80% of the people on these forums don't even play the game...

Same for me, but that's because I'm addicted to EVE Online/WoW now.

AW

Wiener, just shut up ok? Some people might actually be interested where people they like went. Whether they're still playing or not.

LOL. On Feb 1st you posted about trying Renegade in widescreen mode, and you were OMG excited and said it felt like a new game.

Now, 19 days later, the game is "dead" to you and no longer excites you...

Considering renforums team won against Exodus just recently...

Yeah thats true. I have my breaks every now and again so I can spend more time enjoying my other activities.

But since it is so easy to run Renegade and drop into a AOW game anytime it can virtually be played at anytime such as 40 min before you go out.

Hope to see you ingame or on these forums sometime or another.

So, the ones that do still play kick ass?

For a team that never played together, we kicked Jelly's and Exodus but

With some close calls on some maps. They put up a great fight too

19 days is a decent amount of time(well at least in my life) and widescreen isn't THAT big of a deal.

Well, it fixes everything from being skinny and gay. I personally like the widescreen glitch.
