I have got myself the program Adobe After Effects.
Its a pretty fun program, the first video I made is me picking up a car

Its not very realistic but its ok

I had to watch the video to get what you meant by "pick up a car"

Not a bad try, although the car definitely looks fake (because it is of course).

The car was really filmed at that spot tho

But i will retry filming this because it looks like my head dissapears in the car, plus their is no shadow indeed!

I made a new short video today, its pretty funny I think
Made myself and a girlfriend turn into a monster
