Here's my list.

Dreganius - best cnc 3 pack ever + various other skins like urimas pistol modification, dragon tank.

Reborn - Designing most of the reborn shit, pretty win.

Post yours and give reasons why you think there the best.

Discuss.

Scrin, because Bloom!11

Dreganius, because he made some of the coolest stuff i've ever seen DieHardNL because he's made a lot of things that are entirely awesome some of his things make me cringe though (elves and shit) UnitXc made a pretty sweet skin pack for Nod vehicles

that's the 3 people i think of

It's renardin who makes the reborn skins, not reborn. I understand your confusion, though.

Dreganius, Di3hardNL, and Renardin are my picks.

I'd say Blazea58, but he doesn't really do skins (despite the fact that he'd be awesome at them).
He more or less maps and makes his own textures.

I just like that the topic is "Top 3 of all time" yet everyone is mostly mentioning people that are still active in the community, because the majority of the people here weren't around when real modding was getting done. The vast majority of people making stuff now just play around with photo shop filters, rip things from other textures, or add random, useless things to the model. Check the skins section of cncnz, or cncden, if you want to see some real skins.

There are a few skins at those sites that are good... but they are outnumbered by the others that suck ass so much... kinda like here.

look at this classic skin found on cncden

the building symbol is different!!

that is the most mind blowing skin i have ever seen in my life, classic old skins are indeed greater than those of today

Half of CnCden's skins are just someone writing "CNCDEN" over the original texture... I wish I had them skills...

Well i'll have to say:

Dreganius and Di3

I myself can't say the people from renegade x or reborn team are great skimmers, since i didn't see them make something for ren

But really, there were more people that made great skins from time to time.. For example
