Have you been run over by the enemy harvester enough that you want to kick it's ass?

This sound pack slightly loudens and changes the engine sound for the Harvester.
The sound used is what I suspect was the original.

Enjoy

Personally, I wouldn't use it tho. I kinda like the sound of it and lol when it runs me over gj anyways.

One could call it an advantage sound but seriously, how often have you been run over by the harv in your last 10 games?

This ia almost like BB, you dont notice it until its gone (if its not getting announced) Should be a so called "cheat" too...

Please take that elsewhere.
Fine that you have something against goztow for his cheat description.
The modrelease section is already near dead and you want to create more drama to kill it earlier?

@Orca: Nice find I came accros those too some time ago.
As far as I can tell they are the original sound.
Though the only movie in the ren beta style already contained the last harvester version.

if someone calls this a cheat, then he should be called a n00b.

funny that you made this though, tells me a lot about you.

Nah, not trying to kill anything. I got basicly nothing against this, but from what ive seen (read), people call BB cheat/Adv. because you can see if something gets damaged even if its not announced. Well, if you can have louder noice, example footsteps, LOUD ONES, wouldent that be a adv./cheat? Some people might think so.

Loud stank sounds are most certainly a cheat because they allow you to spot a stank when normally you couldn't. So that would be what I call a significant advantage.

However, making the sound of the c130 louder wouldn't be a significant advantage IMO because tbh: how often do you get killed by it??? Same for the harv. Yes: the word significant is open for interpretation.
