I got a mouse mat made from DeathLink6.0's wallpaper release. It's pretty cool. I had it printed up onto the material itself, rather than some cheap glue on print.

What do you think? The quality is actually really really good, the camera I used doesn't do it justice. I will take a better quality picture soon.

Looks pretty cool! Not as cool as the original C&C Renegade mousemat I won at the NS raffle and that I'm waiting for since about 3 months, though .

nice mouse pad
I actually don't like mouse pads they aren't big enough of a surface for me. So i just use the desk.
On a side note, I prefer the Microsoft 5000 mouse. its perfect for my hand. So i have 2 now

It's a cultural difference.

You know, like football/soccer, color/colour, etc.

Also, I have that same keyboard :V

Well, a mousepad could also refer to the touchpad thing that comes on laptops.

I call them mouse pads instead of mats though anyways.
