Paranormal Activity is such a pile of cinematic garbage it's not even funny. The concept of a camera based horror film has been done before, and much better (See: Blair Witch Project, [REC], Cloverfield). There are also PLENTY better horror series that are made for FREE online (Marble Hornets, LouisePaxton). Paranormal Activity is just a steaming pile of shit with two hardly believable characters in an extremely generic setting with horrible pacing, and any form of frightening aspect it may have is ruined when they review the tapes 3 fucking times over. It ruins it entirely.

That being said, that video's almost a year old. Good job.

They are all a bunch of bullshit. Hollywood movies are nothing compared to the real thing. The experiences are entirely different and ghosts/spirits cannot physically harm you. Hollywood is WRONG!

It was a bullshit movie I didn't care to watch like all the so-called "horror" movies of today.

Horror movies nowadays are full of pointless blood and gore with knives and chainsaws and deranged maniacs chasing dumb-oversexed kids.

Last time I saw a good horror movie was The Wickerman (made in 1973). It's all about a really good quality storyline with a feeling of horror that slowly gets on you as the movie comes to a mind-blowing conclusion. That's what I am lookin for. I want to be in the shoes of the character in the movie.

Sadly, they won't be making any quality storyline movies like that today because the market is different now. Today they can make total bullshit and people will still go see them. Shitty movies like Hostel and Hostel 2 are so unconvincing along with the SAW shit.
