they should make the radio commands like tribes 2. If you've played that game you know that most of the time people rarely chat because all they say is covered in the menu such as Need this or that. That would be cool.

I wish it could be disabled at will. It seems like I always get an idiot spamming out drivel endlessly. Some of them are worthless too:"I need repairs" - OK, but where the h3ll are you?"Building needs repairs" - Which one?"Enemy spotted" - That's nice. Where/what is he?"Follow me" - Why? Where are you going?"Spank me harder" - oops, wrong game

"I'm in position" - Errrr... yes?"Defend the base" - Aha, where does the threat come from? Gunners? Flame tanks? Some MRLS? MAMMOOTHs??"Watch where you're pointing that" - Sorry do you think I hurt you with pleasure??!!

The Tribes 2 chat system is awesome. The Renegade chat system sucks. Tribes 2 even has an internal microphone chat. And, Tribes 2-Fast Attack comes out in like September and who knows what that'll add. For now, get a nice little 60wpm and you'll be fine.
