Sorry, his web page links to trainers, which are not allowed to be discussed in here. In fact, most trainers are just a way for script kiddies to infect your machine so you unwillingly join their botnet.

And am I flamming you right now?

You're so full of shit.

And you're lucky cause I had to clean up my comp a bit, so I don't have the chat log.

But you and I know that you used a warez copy of the beta, you sandbox shit.

i like the way you used good then the slash, makes it look like you are just an average renegade player.

Anyone who cheats is a fag, no point argueing about it, whether its online or not, you still cant say you completed the game because you cheated, i know you never said that but its a general point

Lol, he wasn't agreeing with you, n00b.

You do know you are posting on these boards illegally right? You know that little disclaimer you had to agree with to register on these boards? It says you have to be over 13 years of age, which you obviously aren't.
