The Construction Yard area is heavily defended by AA guns.

Take out the PowerPlant to cut off power to the AA's. Once power is down only a few Allied Rocket soldiers stand in your air-way of victory.

The Construction Yard is internally repaired by engineers, you will have to get inside and kill the engineers before you can destroy it.

Fun flying map

the idea looks good i think, get rid of the blue color though. that makes it unrealistic.

good job anyways!

btw zunnie.net, haha im still on the fanmaps roster.

pretty cool you still have a backup of the old site, i remember it again. you were able to make small changes to your profile on that page wasn't it?
