Your NOD...and you just purchased a vehicle, Get it off the darn flightline quick! Don't drive your vehilce off the flightline by driving down the flightline, if that aircraft comes in again to drop off another vehicle yours will be destroyed when aircraft/vehicle hits your vehicle.

and on the other side, if you're GDI, don't sit over the airstrip while attacking it. And for Nod, don't drive into the WF to attack it.Let them learn the painful way.

Lol I remember one time we were disarming a nuke beacon inside the weapons fac door and someone decided to buy a tank at that time.Big mistake, he literally got swears off the server after all our hotwire bodys crumbled and the nuke went off blowing up the factory.I was so angry then, and now I look on it and laugh. I think he did it on purpose.lol
