This is different backgrounds from several maps.

this includes the original BWBackground for Nod sadly GDI original has been lost forever due to old download not including the actual background (could have sworn it did).

but anyway here it is ill also be releasing a slideshow version if i can ever figure out how that is done if it is even possible.

Aircraftkiller come on in!!!!

Seriously the point of this is? I recommend you to combine these rotating backgrounds with one of my tracks. Community members will appreciate that.

You should add a little more to them.

team colors would be awesome, in the back.dds there is also a rotating animation. maybe you could do something with a team logo over there. would be epic.

That rotating is actually a still texture put on an animated plane.

DDS can't be animated afaik. Atleast not by itself.

EDIT:

I'm not sure but if you'd know the memory address of the mainmenu background, I guess you could change that once in a while to another image (scripts)

Needs more bloom

Like them, though team colors would make them a bit better. Maybe take some of fanmaps too. Bunkers_TS might be a pretty good ss. Or even Siege.
