Thinking about starting up coding again, just wondering if any community is in need of a coder

I normaly work in C++/SQLite/SQL/PHP/CSS/XHTML/Graphic design

Perhaps you might consider contacting JonWil and asking if he would like some help with TT? MP-Gaming could do with someone who is a bit more dedicated to our MissionDM server, there are numerous things to fix and a larger "wishlist", plus room for innovation.

My mod is looking for a coder seeing as we don't really have one. I sent you a PM about it, would be awesome to have you aboard.
