I thought it would be a cool challenge to try to beat Renegade's campaign without HUD. So I Googled up a hack or console code. After about 3 days, I find this place, but the hack is for multiplayer, and I can't find the hack at all! Any help?

Lol, this isn't really a signature.

Why? We don't support cheats here, so just letting you know your post will likely be deleted...

On a side note, if you have scripts 3.4.4, press f8, type hud, and press enter. It should work on the campaign mode afaik, but I'm really sure tbh.

With Scripts 3.4.4 you can use "hud 0" to disable and "hud 1" enable again (as previously mentioned) but... in Single Player it's usually recommend to not use Scripts of any kind (except the ones Renegade comes with) for a less buggy experience, just so you know.

Thanks man! It works perfectly! The only bug I've found is the first time I got to a house in Mission 2, a soldier said "In Here" about 15 times.
