I have never been very good at sniping. What I am good at is sneaking up on focused snipers and dropping my C4 on their backs. LOL I have done this more often than you would think is possible. All too often, snipers stay in GREENLIGHT mode a minute to long...or should I say, 30 seconds too long. LOL One more observation: I dutifully recognize the necessity of snipers on my team. What I do not appreciate is that snipers only really help during specific cirstances, and I have found that many snipers are unwilling to change strategies when the time is right. To perch on a hill while tanks are running your base over is silly.

Yeah, some games have too many snipers. There should be a limit of 4 snipers per team, even that is more than enough.

Nothing better than planting C-4 on an unsuspecting sniper and watching the results....

yes its fun but i stopped doing that cause 3/4 of the time just as im about to chuck c4 it lags or they move.i good sniper will here your footsteps and shouldnt be standing still anyway.i find it much more effective to just cap them with my pistol.. 6 shots kills deadeye. 7 shots kills Ramjet. they are usually dead before they realise they are being shot a few weeks ago in complex as nod i walk outta airstip, and die. do it again. i die. the third time i just manage to see havoc in our snipe point. so i grap sbh and run behind him nd i throw my c4. hes sees me and i die again. but i say "you got c4 on ya!" and he replies "yeah, right" then i say "yes i know i am" i walk out of airsrip and see a little explotion in snipe point. the f2 place on top o screen is full of LOLLOLOLs from my team. he tries to come back as pic sydney but i do it again. then he left. funny funny funny...

I prefer to use a shotgun, right in the head. About as effective, but it doesn't take that long.

sbh with snipers aint that good, coz when u scope in they r reaveale coz its a form of shooting coz its secondry fire.i luv sbh's with a rail gun, or mostly i use a pistol, silent but deadly, i use it, creep behind ppl in a sniper game, 6 heashots, dead, hide until u r stealthed and the other ppl dont know where r were, and by the time the enemy tell them, u have moved

There's nothing like thinking you're all set and noone can touch you cause youre killing everything in sight, then you hear a beep, turn around in time to see a silouhette and then you know its a matter of time.....

My team and I did something fun today. There were 6 or 7 Snipers (Deadeyes and Havocs) up on the cliffs in Walls_Flying we rushed them with 5 people and killed 4 of them with Shotguns and the rest with Timed C4s. We all died, but we were Shotgun Troopers, they were more expensive Characters.

I can never get my teammates to give up the 1000 k characters for deadeyes. I keep telling them that they are giving the enemy free points, and if they were any good they wouldnt need the 100 k'ers. They dont realize that it takes the enemy twice as many kills to get the same amount of points. Use the darned deadeyes/bh's.

i always warn the perps after i plant c4 on them -- makes the boink even sweeter.of course i wait 15 seconds before i do so -- that way i can be sure they cant defuse it.If there are 2 perps standing by each other - i usually will plant the c4 - then hit each of them with my laser- if im lucky -one will die - if i die - i might get that kill on both when they run back to the PT to recharge.... --- love that timed c4.
