I don't know if this has been asked before but a great feature would being able to create dialogs like "do you wish to ban this user?" Yes / no.

And a browser dialog to display server info.

Possible?

Thanks.

Agree. Great Idea

Could be used in things like voting "Do you wish to skip the current map" etc.

They don't have time to add in your warm watermelon. Its a very useful feature especially the web browser, so you can show like a list of rules or instructions on join.

Or at least show us how to implement these changes our self.

Why not just copy the Battlefield loading screens?

Welcome to <servername>!

Please keep to our rules:

<list of rules>

Enjoy!

I'm not going to explain what a warm watermelon is. Did you ever see Me, Myself, and Irene?

sozialism?? wtf does that have to do with any of this?

It was a joke on him saying he needs to get laid, and stop being an ass, since I had a legitimate suggestion.
