I wanted to know if it would be fine for People to suggest Scripts, which could be included in TT

At this point TT is in feature freeze and no new features or scripts are being added. If we keep adding more and more and more stuff it will never be released. Instead we are finishing up the features that have already been implemented so we can move towards a possible release at some point.

TL;DR
No.

Well, we're open for suggestions for whatever comes after TT, so say Scripts 4.1 or something...

Edit: that does mean you shouldn't count on it any time soon though...

I guess... Still doesn't mean anything to me. And I think he's asking for it to be in 4.0, which, I think, was clearly stated to be impossible.

Not for 4.0. Feel free to suggest things once we start on 4.1.

WHICH PART OF "Well, we're open for suggestions for whatever comes after TT, so say Scripts 4.1 or something..." OR "At this point TT is in feature freeze and no new features or scripts are being added. " DO YOU NOT UNDERSTAND?

IT IS NOT GOING TO BE IN 4.0.

Look you pissed of white dragon by making a suggestion.

No, I'm evil. I think DP stated very clearly why it cannot be in 4.0. I more or less repeat that twice, and kamuixmod apparently still fails to read that it cannot be in 4.0, and that we're willing to consider it for whatever comes AFTER 4.0.

So it will be in 4.0?
