that stealth was probably me, as soon as the first flame rush fails, gdi have complete control on that map. medcs and mammys can just pound the hard for the next 50 mins. get a stealth b/h and stand back behind the front line, guaranteed to pick yourself up a tank or 2, or 3, or 4. works on under too.

CNC Masters right.....get a few peeps to sneak with you take out the engies and hold tight.....your bound to get at least 1 out of all of you.....best thing is the retards that think your actually them and will pull up in front of you letting you shoot em in the poop shoot!.....but even today I encountered a few retards fixing there mammy tanks(it was in the walls level i believe) and they pulled to the opposite side where there was no combat and started fixing them.....i shot both of em with my sakura grabbed one brought it back ran back and grabbed the other.....obv. someone else from my team took the mammywe won cuz I also bought like 6 tanks for other peeps throughout the game.....im so nice aint i? lol if you wanna play w/ me i play on the MACAUT TC server all the time.....hit me up here(private message) and well make plans or somethingbye

I was playing on field as Nod. GDI had three mammys blocking our base entrance.I was doing the Raver thing.Then some IDIOT got out of theyre mammy.I whacked him with the railgun and stole his tank.I fell back behind the other mammys,and nudged them into obby range. My new toy,the oby and the other ravers made sort work of the other two.It wasnt long before a couple more mammys cam rolling into our base...but the oby didnt fire.Yup. We now had a total of three stolen mammys.GDI lost simply because there were TEN vehicles pounding theyre base. Four of those being the mammys and an MRLS some lucky stealth picked up.

A few days ago i was a black hand (not the stealth one)on the city_flying ,and being cocky just to get the nOObs *ed off.I was fighting a nOOB in a orca and i was playing hide and go seek while making fun of his aim.He was "ed off" at me for making fun of his aim.So he got out of the orca and started to shoot maddly all over the place.So i sneaked slowly to the orca,i got into the orca.He didnt even know that i was in the stinken orca.I said (while being cocky)to the idot,Look behind you and he did,then he said thats mine get out or something like that. then i shot him.

well a couple days ago i was playin on the teegs west coast, t1, for sum strange reason MY TEAM WAS FULL OF IDIOTS, seriously, i enter the game and nod has 3 meds. oh and this was on fields, so i tell my whole team that no one should get out of there vechile unless there in base, so i buy a mrls and join the 2 meds and 1 mamoth thats sorta keepin nod couped up in base, so i start pundin the hon and the mami is like in yellow so he drivees up in front of me and gets out, so im like in team chat GET IN YOUR MAMOTH, dude dont respond just keeps repairin, and he was a engi so it took twice as long for him to repair, then he just stops and types back, dont worry your missiles scare them away, so not only does he block my firing sight so i cant fire at anything he makes me open to attack if a bh takes it, so as a joke i yell at him theres a stealth black hand coming for your mami, he just keeps reparin, so im like omg, 2 seconds later a nod sbh takes it luckily he never shot at me so i backed away against the wall, lol, so im like i told ya so, he wasent to happy though, but still they took like every second tank that went out on the field
