Quote:Just drag the files into your renegade data folder.

The files modify the emitters of the flame tank, the chem sprayer, and the flame thrower.

Your fps will barely drop when someone is using these weapons.

Won't work with renguard.

Drag these files into your renegade data folder and it will remove or lessen the amount of smoke from the powerplants and the tunnels in the volcano level.

This will not work with rengaurd.

The storm admins (and any other server you want to play on with those changes) should allow this explicitly.

Why would they? That's the pack that removes smoke as well..which is a cheat.
Hell I bitch about the smoke a lot(I can never see when using my mammy/arty in a firefight), but there's no way I'd use that at all.

Also would someone remove that link to it...holy christ almighty on a stick. TT complained about Building Bars..this is way worse. >:P

Well as I tried to explain to Marcin lastnight, it'll be on his head if some unwitting people download that and join any server I'm at.

I did not (and don't) know what those changes do, but it remains up to the server owner to allow or disallow whatever they do.
