The answer to your question is in the Renegade General Descution forum, I found the post for ya and bumped it up. Just don't continue to try and find an Aimbot, or I will be really disapointed with you. [August 29, 2002, 13:30: Message edited by: IModx1]

up. Just don't continue to try and find an Aimbot, or I will be really disappointed with you. STFU, and Demo hwe only told me how to, but some other people knew too. Myself and a friend figured it out in one of our little routine 2 player practices. Suffice to say, it was LONG ago when we found it, and sadly... SOMEONE decided to make it public...stupid people...
