I'll lease you a0000000a.
Barely anyone is playing these days so it isnt worth while having a server up.

I know Jelly has some of the top ones, but as far as I know they aren't open for leasing. As far as I know it's up to Mr. Jelly himself, and seeing as how he hasn't been online in ages because he's probably busy with his newborn, I doubt he'll be of any help.

May I ask you though what it is that you ant a a00 nick for? Do you plan to run a server?

Right I see.

Yes I plan to restart Atomix since Xpert has decided to move himself and the player base to Storm, killing an entire community in the process.
