take off this gunner modification that makes it shoot twice on the same time instead of once... nearly unbeatable on maps like crevasse... 1 shot to the ground somewhat near you and your character is either dead or left with 10 health

conclusion: most retarded mod ever

Yeah, that's something ACK did. Not anything st0rm did. It's only maps Crevasse and Fjords though.

Already fixed it. Removed homing missiles and alt-fire from Gunner and RSOs. Left in burst fire for Grenadiers and 3x damage alt-fire for Flamethrowers. You can still pick up the old Gunner homing/burst missiles but you'll have to find them. Spawners were fixed as well. They have a minimum spawn time of 10 seconds and a maximum spawn of 20.

I sent the file to Wilo to update the server.

Will any rl that drops be a 3-burst one?

It has to do with genetics, not testosterone.

It actually causes you to get bald earlier.

Male pattern baldness is mostly the result of a genetic event that causes dihydrotestosterone (DHT), a male hormone, to cause the hair follicles to atrophy. The hair produced is progressively smaller, until it is practically invisible (or may disappear completely). It has been speculated that this is an evolutionary event that signifies maturity and conveys greater authority on affected men.
