We all know them, the bad losers calling you a cheater when you shoot em in the head. And how they can come up with stuff beats my but hell are they creative! i cant help it that im a pro and your a n00b... here are some things i got accused of:-aimbot (we all know that one)-god mode (learn how to aim you n00b!)-auto heal (where do they come up with it!)-all weapons (there is a rumor about this but its not treu)i could go on for ever, but i wont...Just get over it stupid n00bz, ok if your killed as a 1000 credit unit ok that sux and i also get realy *ed but thats no reason to start making excuses just because you wernt paying attention or your just a newbie wich is no crime. Here is a statement: Players that can't aim well are newbies, the become n00bs once they start accusing you of cheating.

or there's those of us that aren't accused, we just get kicked. almost every day I get kicked from a snipers only game for owning the host, and if you join a dedicated server, everyone buys a tank...except in crimssons server some of those are possible if you are the host and have sum mods. but when all my friends are in devs and stuff and we ownings. they say "homey has an aimbot" and i say yup. and we start a big fight with us vs. n00bs. try it. its good fun. u also geta couple extra kills when they are typing

Yesterday i played on under as gdi and a guy from the nod side always responded to my team postings.i used f3, he responded via f2. Is there any possibility u can "hear" the f3 posts that the opposite team states? or was it just coincidence that his f2 - posts always "seemed" to be the answer to mine?.i.e. i said: "plz 2 foot soldiers protect me im going to nuke the pp". He said: "plz send me an e-mail about this tactic" i said: "noone wants to come with me?" he wrote. "i will - haha". i said: "hello, <name> can u read my posts? this would be cheating!" he said: "sorry for my experience..." and so on.plz tell me that it was just coincidence! It would be horrible if it is possible to spy out the opposing f3-messages.

you know what else is kind of cheating, Hourglass map. when GDI stands on the hill so the OB is targeting him but missing head by inches. then GDI APC rushes NOD base. thats not very nice.
