I understand you want to be a "spammer", but you don't have to reply to EVERY topic. Relax, you'll get there, and it's not like you get a prize, or extra respect for it.

210 posts in a week puts you at 30 posts a day. relax.

lol I was waiting for this topic to come up well sorry but I do not actually spam I just try to reply to the topics sensibly rather than go around spamming things like it's Nod not NOD that are completely off topic and I do want to be "Commander" I would not like to do this unfairly...

The way to earn respect is by helping people and having skill I understand that...

You may notice there are others that post just like me but ok I will calm down...

Fair enough ey?

I would just like to say I think it is good that everybody can tell the difference between spam and a thought out reply a reply like "lol", " " or "you suck" is spam where as well though out replies like "lol that was funny I think so and so was good and so was so ans so" (with proper so na so's) is a more acceptable post...

What I find annoying is people who just keep posting bump in there thread scowls at Greiver and his .Net Startup Prolem Topic ...

Sure I would like to have Commander under my name but I would rather be Recruit there forever rather than lose the confidence of my fellow community counterparts.

IC you want to bitch at that, but all these people walking around going, "Yeah, i was a phase 1 beta tester" just to feel special arn't a problem huh? Screw the rank, i could care less about it. Don't know about the other 2.

And, Spammander? WTF, have you read any of my posts, obviosly not, do you see me going around like Zeratul "yeah this 100MB of my mod is a great piece of shit" Begging people to d/l it. WTF is your problem? I feel sorry for the n00b that has to go bitch at someone just cause they have more posts than you. Having this many posts just shows how active we are in the community.

So, i'll say it again so you can read it this time.

I'll tell you what I do see, Spammander.

You posting in ten or more topics in 30 minutes. Really, you are just making yourself look less intelligent than before by refuting the very proof that exists to all viewers of this forum.

You folks really get off on this stuff, but what will you do after you achieve spammander? There isn't anything else.

As far as being a beta tester of Renegade, ummmmmm, they helped BUILD this game through beta feedback. I think that's worth mention. Not the crap in your sig. Activity doesn't denote INTELLIGENT activity. Hell, ants are active too, but they aren't the brightest.....
