Again... are you forgetting the resource manager? If you're going to force 4.0 in Clanwar Servers, then you should realize clients can auto download the maps.

And what's the difference between these maps and the regular maps?

mostly the modified costs (lots of infantry are cheaper) and it seems to me downloading the map pack here is better than each map individually; takes only a few moments and doesn't delay gameplay.

Why not use both? Makes sure the client *ALWAYS* has the right version. Hell, with the packagemanager you can even update your maps without calling them city_2 or something ridiculous and uninformative.

according to you, the fact you remember something like this must mean you have an unexciting life! aside from the fact you're making it up, which if anything might reinforce my point about you having some kind of psychological disorder tell me loki, has it ever occurred to you why you have so much fury towards someone who never did you any wrong in the first place? i even stuck up for you at one point when everyone else on ren knew what cheating compulsive-lying vermin you are, remember? course, that was only because i didn't know you for what you are at the time, but i soon found out.

idk why you'd try to shit on someone's efforts to get something going in the first place i thought maybe that was why; if not then i haven't the slightest idea and you don't even have a dick so don't say silly things like that but i honestly didn't appreciate having to download a separate map pack just to join one of these servers, considering 4.0 has an auto map downloader that someone took numerous hours to create in an attempt to make it easier for players to join servers without having to download separate map packs

i audibly cursed Spoony's name several times; ask Hitman

i saw loki ingame as well

Stating a convenient way of doing something than a current method is shitting on them? Last I remember, that was a suggestion.

liquidv2 wrote on Mon, 16 January 2012 06:58

Yet again, you assume something without gathering any facts. I made 2 post in this topic, all relating to the resource manager. Then you come out of no where stating something that isn't even relevant to any of it.

Hense why I pointed it out?

I was speaking for the people who don't even read these forums and he wants them to get involved in a league only a small amount know about. On top of that, a map pack that you need to download in order to participate.

I was making a suggestion. I really don't care for the league.

It's irrelevant to anything related to me discussing the resource manager. I don't care, again, I was making a suggestion. Last time I checked, a suggestion is a psychological process by which an idea is induced in or adopted by another without argument, command, or coercion. I don't have to care to make a suggestion. A waiter suggests different alcohol beverages to you, doesn't mean he cares about what you drink.

I said "Waste of time" in another topic. I stated my opinion. Does my opinion have to have a deep hidden reason to why I said it? No.

Seriously liquid, get the stick out of your ass and stop trying to find answers to things that doesn't exsist. Congrats at helping me derail this topic to help provide you with useless information, but benefits you in some kind of matter.
