i dont know if tis was coverd or not by anyone els (dont kill me if it was) but the ultimate air stragy get a orca or apche and head to a enemy base FAST now, if there are base defences wait till there nocked out and make sure they cant use there warfactorys/air fields. or have not much cash (u can find that out by what they attack u wit ) back on topic :send ur air unit (make sure u can attack wit it)and head into the power plant on top were the oval thing is at and land ur aircrfat in there ( to make a perfect fit ( use orcas and land on a x-axes ( aka = _____ line )and enjoy reeking havoc - lol can be done on senior players and works too good on no0bs

it is possible to fly over the hole, that means u can land on it somehow, even though not inside...well if u leave you'll see ur orca up there and u tumbling down...usually that happens

All ya have to do is wait until everything but the HoN is destroyed for this to work. Excellent "tastic". And you're actually helping your team out how?
