Hey guys, I haven't played renegade in almost three years and I want to know if there are still servers active? Of course I could just install it and check for myself but I don't have the game anymore and I could consider buying it again, or just look for it around my house

Yeah, not dead yet. You still get 40+ player games.

I wish they'd have sent out a mass email to everybody registered here and at Jelly and Noobstories and the rest to tell people of the 10th anniversary of Ren. I'm sure that would have sparked a ton of interest into Ren again.

We will probably do something like that once TT 4.0 is finalized.

If you're right then you're better informed than me. If I were to guess then I would say that end of may is plausible, but rather uncertain as of yet.

Holy fuck, it's been so long since I've been here. The last time I logged in here was five years ago. I cannot believe how much time has passed. I suppose the Renegade community ain't what it used to be. I had actually heard a song that reminded me of back when I used to be on here and when I played Renegade. I had some free time, so I figured I'd check this place out expecting it to be non-existent. Glad there's still a little bit of community left... I have no recollection of any of the shit that I posted here many a year ago. By checking my post history here, and as well as my signature... I am reassured that I did indeed have a childhood. I must say that I am rather embarrassed as to the content of the majority of my posts. It's all left me to wonder.. "What was I thinking?" It would appear many of my posts were poorly written, soaked in immaturity, and occasionally lathered in arrogance. Nonetheless, I'd still like to point out that I thoroughly enjoyed my time here and on Renegade... naive and silly though I may have been. I can very well assure you I am not the person that I was here though. I'm a professional firefighter, and will be heading into the United States Navy as an officer soon. Anyways, I hope you all had as much fun as I did. Cheers.

Guess I wasn't right, lol. I was just asking about it in TS and someone said that it may have happened before the end of April.

we all gotta start somewhere many people still enjoy the game even now in 2012, 10 years after it was released

it's good to see that it's still around i help mod one of the remaining servers (Jelly, if you remember back)

Not dead but people are trying to kill it: selfish and shitty mods, server owners who don't do anything about them, cheaters, worthless shite like azazel, etc.
