Since he doesn't have a renegadeforums account, I am posting on his behalf, he can generally be found in jelly server and is always up for a 1v1

You can't use a sniper in a aow 1v1 fyi.

You can. Once I take out his wf/air, it's fair game.

Anyway, I'm not just one-sided; I can AOW a little bit. I have the basic cw strats down, but playing anyone good I'll get destroyed.

Playing him, I think I got this.

Hugging with a lower ping is actually harder than hugging with a higher ping, btw.

i know people that hug with a higher ping tend to not hug probably and stand still in open by accident because of lag i guess.

That and if you have less than 100 ping your position is updated more frequently than with 200, which is really noticeable.

I'm speaking from experience; from how it should be it may be different. Whenever I play @ atomix, it's hard for me to hug, nearly everyone hits it and it's hard to stay in. So, I don't do it.

Same with Jelly (cuz low ping).

Now, whenever I did play @ tmx (not anymore lol) it was so easy to hug because of the high ping.
I was never able to be shot, it was easier to invis hug, and even more easier to glitch hug.

to be fair tmx is a terrible server, so not really a fair comparison.

i get like 30 ping on tmx and it still lags like fuck dunno why anyone plays there, from hard it is for everyone to hit people probably everyone gets lag, if you compare it to st0rm when they went 4.0
and you literally only missed 1 out of 3 shots there

Quite funny why players choose it over the competition. It's last the last consistency active sniper server - yeah we know that there's lag problems but they'll be addressed quite soon.

Players only choose the server because whenever 1 person joins it, others follow. Whenever I joined Atomix sniper, people would follow and join.

You say competition? There's really only 2 known sniper servers (which Atomix isn't even known for sniping). I wouldn't consider that competition. If 1337 was still around, TmX would have been dead. At least ozzy would have cared to upgrade the server so it isn't a complete pile of shit.

The lag problems being addressed soon? I won't hold my breathe, as it's been forever. Might wanna make the server 4.0, too.

We're waiting for certain things to be fixed in the current beta before going 4.0.

Edit: I believe you're still banned for advertising btw, lol.

I was never banned, unless they banned me while I wasn't ingame. Even so, I haven't joined there in weeks. I prefer not lagging and playing with cheaters.
