Ok I am now on the last level. It starts up and the instant I hit the ground I'm under fire. From the previous mission I was really hard pressed and now I am down to practically my stealth pistol and some rockets . I'm all out of ammo and I die after like 5 seconds on the mission.Anyone have any good tactics for this mission?thanks

Move move move! And watch for ceiling guns. I was trying to hide and lurk, but found the best way was to try and deal with the automated defenses ASAP and watch for soldiers. They also drop plenty of weapons, and at the end of the first floor you start on, there are plenty of power-ups which will respawn.Good luck, and save often

If you can't help beat her. Post the weapons you have ammo for. Maybe I can help ya out with what order to use them in.(Be suprised on how the order of using weapons helps )

AHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHH Single player.....eviiiii.....
...eviiiii. Note to any other Renegade players playing Sp is not good for your health and leads to "RENEGADE SUCKS" virus. Multiplayer is where it's at boys and gurlz.
