I can tab out of ren and the game will keep going, so I can check something in IRC or teamspeak, but when I open ren up again it instantly crashes.

I click the icon on my taskbar, the window doesn't open up and ren instantly shuts down.

Any way I can prevent this from happening so I can still check irc and stuff? I hate playing windowed

It might be skins. just saying, jonwil helped me with a crash and it was audio files.

so you think it may be skins because jonwil helped you with a crash related to audio files?

It could be anything tbh, I'm just pointing out that skins, and audio files, and w3d.

as 4.0 doesn't like some audio files it may reject some skins or w3d.

Or it could be his ram, or gpu or cpu who knows ;p

Just saying you can never be to sure.

I used to have this problem, tried a bunch of things.

In the end a reinstall of Ren fixed.

Probs not what you want to hear...
