fact is crushy its all these power hungry keyboard warriors aka mods ?

I have seen more mods run players out of the game than anything be it bans for silly reasons or hate bans as for the cheaters fck them .

at some point there may be 2 real servers left and maybe 50 players max .

seen this happen in other games I once loved quake/doom oh and MDK and yes MDK is a game ? watched as keyboard warriors slowly force out or put of players till none is left .

its renwars and there can be only one

Problem is there are to many useless servers that spread everyone out.

Jelly should change its server to 40 players and create another that people gravitate too. 50 is to many and ruins game for me personally.

Then there is

Like 10 in NS
16 in rencorner
6 in ultra
4 in area
2 in coop
2 in TMX
6 in atomix or cloud or some shit
2 in a build server

Idk thats just a estimate how the numbers go but the numbers spread out and its lame and useless. Everyone needs to stick together to fill up servers and have fun games.

You give Atomix a little too much credit. It's pretty much dead unfortunately - its a real shame too. I used to love that server.

Wipe everything out starting at ultra aow and go down the list. That is like 25 players that go into n00bstories for arguments sake and that is 3 servers running with just about 30 poeople in it which is pretty fucking awesome to me and that would attract more players to join too.

None of this split shit really pisses me off watching.

noobstories is great for when you have finish read the phonebook or inbetween watching paint dry and checking your stamp collection n00bstories is good because it is the only actual server left other than jelly which is semi-normal.

I don't give a shit if you people hate the mods or admins. The point is that it is a good server skill and player wise and people should stop screwing around and not let Renegade die to a modded server like Rencorner or other new maps like ultra aow.

Stop spreading out and play the damn game!

It doesnt even have to be n00bstories just create a normal server and go play in it. Ex Crush is a pussy server but the reason we play other servers is we like the modded type of game with something extra . its a old game and most of us have been playing years and to play stock ren over and over and over realy will drive ppl to other games .

it's the moded server with new maps or items with in the game that may keep people playing ok if you like the same old thing all the time go to jelly or noob . but if you yern for change check out the others .

maybe all need to try bring in new players young and old.. and not kick or ban them on the very first game for gta or th ect ..

remember my very first game online EKT server they banned me with in 10 mins for takeing a stored apc .

and this still happens now some mods are to harsh on newbies that first kick can put them of for good

I was actually, but it got removed shortly after lol.

The only place that I'm banned from is Jelly and that doesn't bother me in the slightest. I genuinely dislike marathon servers, I just don't have the patience to play 1 map for 4hours. I get on well with most of the guys over there and there's no hard feelings.

when xperts mod was used just as in area also .I for one could not move glitchy as hell and massive lag along with the crash.s ..

I think xpeerts mod is ok but not sure 4.0 likes it .

atm the lag is low and gameplay is smooth and from what I can see things are being tested ingame to see if the players like or dislike them ... and yeah I said the players get a say in what stays or go.s

for a marthon I think its crazy not to have a backup . to buy veh or weapons .

say you have a slow team and they instantly lose agt wf and bar to a stank rush with in first 5 mins or so ?

then you have the chance of 3 hours free inf snipe whoreing . nothing the team can do but die or hide ? and yes this do's happen and instantly lots of players leave game .

ok to make buying veh and inf to cheap is crazy as then there is little point in killing wf or bar ect . but from what I know the price of such buys is going up so you realy have to work for your creds to get a veh or weapon buy .

nothing worse than a team of 15 where 8 pro snipers RQ as soon as the bar is dead then more leave as teams are uneven leaving you with a 15 v 3 game .

90% of the people who play in my community (which is a lot) prefer the mod we have running right now over Xpert's mod. The rest don't care and don't mind.

I just put in a donation timer, you can't donate within the first 2 minutes of a map.

Weapons/tank prices using commands will be increased (a lot) and tweaked (they can only be purchased in your base, there will be a limit as to how many times you can use these commands per map) is there a timelimit for these purchases, that's one thign I liked about xperts vet system, you could only use it once every 5 minutes.

And from the poll, it didn't seem to be xperts bot there didnt like, there didn't like him and didn't want him around lol
