Don't know if I'm the only one who remembers wilost0rm saying this:

Quote:All St0rm scripts, including St0rmServ, will be made public once the server shuts down.

Have they been made public and if so, where can I find them or does someone still have them? I would like to try and see what it all has to offer.

Good luck in getting them as they were all lost as Freaky didnt think they needed them so he didnt back them up when they changed servers.
