I didn't spam the shit out of it. I don't get your hate for everyone non-RC. Wyld used to come on my TS and play with us alot. He didn't have any issues with any of us and enjoyed it.

Stop being such an uptight prick and just enjoy what is left of the game.I know i do, I rarely get to play anymore and I enjoyed being able to play a commwar for once.

Also...the server didn't crash at any point.. it was a nice server.

Negative.

I think its immature that you guys joined MPF's server just to spam.

I don't like the The fact that you guys even think its funny to spam, I bet MPF didn't appreciate it.

I can see the humor behind it, but I don't think anyone at MPF appreciated what you guys did, I certainly wouldn't appreciate that shit in Ren Corner and when you said "lol we're going to get banned" You probably would be on other servers.

Whoever is leading you guys in a Community war seriously needs to state that doing shit like this, isn't acceptable, when your playing a community war, you representing that community, so in MPF's eyes, they see Jelly as a community that allows their members to spam other communities.

I don't care what anyone says that shit was funny as hell. Croa don't try to be so mature with your statement. I know you are trying to be official and a good guy but there are 3 communities left in renegade. Lets not make a big deal and be so dramatic with your statement.

I love ultra and MPF, they are all good guys and I thank zunnie for setting up the server and I helped him test out some things and hopefully he knows that im a good guy lol =p

Sound effect commands are annoying on their own. They should not be in any server in the first place. We had a good time, we played our 5 maps against MPF that was the 6th and everyone was just in a screw around mode. They might not have enjoyed it at the time but it was all in good fun and we all had fun.

I think they are over it and find the humor. We played the planned maps without any spam or any fights. It was probably the cleanest commwar I've ever played in with no drama or fights. So I think both communities represented themselves perfectly.

You can't pass judgement from one clip of screw around fun mode.

Subject: Re: Funny ending to a good day of commwars
Posted by crushu06 on Sun, 11 Nov 2012 00:25:18 GMT

The after spam that happened in ultra's server was not planned. That was in its own world.

Strictly relating to the commwar there were no issues.

It may have been "fun" for you guys, but it certainly wasn't for MPF. I've personally spoken to Zunnie and him and his moderators definitely didn't appreciate it.

When you guys joined their public server after the community war and started spamming their server - I am honestly surprised Tiny didn't ban you guys.

The only reason why Zunnie hasn't responded here is because he doesn't like drama.

I don't like drama either, but this issue definitely needed to be addressed for future reference, this kind of shit should not be permitted.

At the end of the day, it makes Jelly look bad, when players representing Jelly join a public server of another community and break server rules.

Personally I believe MPF deserves a official apology for the actions of members representing Jelly's community.

As I said before. We played our games, both team got along fine.
That is all that is needed here.

The spam in the actualy fanmap server was people on their own free will. MPF has a right to be mad at that which is fine. I am not a part of that so I am not speaking any opinion. It was not a community decison. I don't think it represents Jelly community at all. It was just people being people.

The spam in the commwar server was a fun act done at the end of the commwar after all the maps were played.

So you guys still stand by what you did. I still consider it offensive. 3/6 of the players that spammed are in fact Jelly moderators, if that doesn't raise a red flag and scream "we represent Jelly's finest" I don't know what does.

It make me wonder if such things are allowed in Jelly, or don't rules apply to moderators if they play elsewhere?

Subject: Re: Funny ending to a good day of commwars
Posted by raven on Mon, 12 Nov 2012 00:04:12 GMT

Going to quote something I said in IRC at one point..

Quote:06:25...   raven: there's a line I draw but it was never crossed.. the people who took it upon themselves to spam in a pub server acted as individuals 06:25...   raven: nothing I can do about that 06:25...   raven: i'm not going to threaten someone with their mod status to behave

If it were an admin or a senior moderator who were doing that, I would definitely take issue as THEY are the ones who represent my community. When my mods aren't playing in Jelly, they leave their mod hats at the door. When they play in Jelly, they put their mod hat on. What happens outside of my boundaries is not in my control.

Them cheating is another story. That crosses that oh-so-fine line I mentioned earlier. Using a few chat commands? Big fucking deal.

If they were doing the same in Jelly, I'd probably tell them to knock it off after a few minutes yeah, no question.

You should be the LAST person to lecture ANYONE about finding things offensive.

TL;DR: Quit being a dicknose >:|

You make it sound like they nick spoof one of the mods and started kicking everyone out of the server. The offense was so minor it is like stealing a pack of gum from your neighbors house which after a few days im sure everyone got over it until the wife came home and started bitching about days later making it more dramatic than it should be.

You are really out to attack jelly right now trying to make us look like bad people. Its called having harmless fun. Not even your fight. Zunnie doesn't want drama, well good job stirring it up for him lol

Does it even matter what community everyone represents at this point .. there's only like twenty consistent renegade players left .. I'm pretty sure everyone knows everyone by now and no particular individual should be the sole representative of a community. For instance .. Ani is a cool ass dude but he has hired quite a few idiots as mod and admin at his server. TMX let's the most notorious cheater in renegade be a moderator there (Azazel). MPF has that Tiny retard who openly threatens to DDoS people because he has a below average sized penis, n00bstories has Jarhead and joejj80 retards who ban or mute anyone that kills them, and Jelly has kids that are obviously immature finding humor in something your average 11 year old would not. Therefore all these communities are represented poorly and you should probably throw your renegade CD away and uninstall at your earliest convenience as there is no community worth playing at.

Oh god no, it's a command that plays a really funny clip, especially when it is spammed. Well it is a terrible crime if people have some harmless fun with it, and I mean, they don't even have any malicious intent to hinder anyone! Can you believe that! How rude is it of them to have a laugh after a fun commwar for one minute by playing a sound clip over and over again. HOLY FUCK. You are really out to attack jelly right now trying to make us look like bad people. Its called having harmless fun. Not even your fight.

I'm not out to attack anyone actually, I didn't need to make Jelly look bad, you guys did that yourself, all I did was clarify what you guys did, which was spam a public server and not a community server.

Yeah, I'm sure everyone on Jelly ts thought it was absolutely hilarious, mpf did not which is pretty clear for all to see... and when you guys was asked to stop, you continued to defy server moderators by continuing to spam. 3 of the 6 players that was at the center of this spam was in fact Jelly moderators, which should know better in all honesty.

I'm surprised you still cant see this crush, haven't I taught you anything? /sigh

When I typed "Blame Iran" at the start of this topic I think they took it seriosuly LOL I don't even know who instigated the commwar spam. It was generally a group decision. I just typed "Blame Iran" to troll him. Idk if that helps your case.
All I know is they linked you to another topic where they quoted my video from here and left in the "blame iran" line. So i think one of them was using that as evidence. I did not read that to detail.

We are terrible people! I can't go on in life!

Jelly community tells it like it is. We all act like jackasses in our own way. Iran calls me "trashu" all the time. Mudkips tells me to "suck his cock" and shit like that.
Thats why Jelly community is awesome and still alive to this day. They don't live in perfect little worlds. This game needs a little trolling and a little fun (IN ITS OWN GOOD CLEAN FUN) to keep it alive and kicking. Spammed 1 time for 1 minute. Type "!mute" and problem solved. Nobody is spamming anymore. Now then there is aircraftkiller who would spam radio commands for 2 hours and tell people to "get shit on" all day long. He is an exception where I kick his ass out of servers and perm mute him =D

Move on people!

Jesse wrote on Mon, 12 November 2012 01:09Does it even matter what community everyone represents at this point .. there's only like twenty consistent renegade players left .. I'm pretty sure everyone knows everyone by now and no particular individual should be the sole representative of a community. For instance .. Ani is a cool ass dude but he has hired quite a few idiots as mod and admin at his server. TMX let's the most notorious cheater in renegade be a moderator there (Azazel). MPF has that Tiny retard who openly threatens to DDoS people because he has a below average sized penis, n00bstories has Jarhead and joejj80 retards who ban or mute anyone that kills them, and Jelly has kids that are obviously immature finding humor in something your average 11 year old would not. Therefore all these communities are represented poorly and you should probably throw your renegade CD away and uninstall at your earliest convenience as there is no community worth playing at.
Btw in case you don't realize the context of your statement, Croatan is Azazel. lol

Yes, that is "funny" - I'm just curious Azazel, do you actually believe that being banned from many servers for being a "tool" is worse than being banned from many servers for using triggerbot?

As far as I know, in Rene-society by far the most deviant act we have is cheating: if you're playing a VIDEO GAME in which the players are supposed to all have an equal footing, then the worst thing a player can possibly do is artificially kick everyone's ass (like you have previously) and then brag about how good they are - even though they're not. And being the most deviant act, pretty much every server in Renegade has always punished offenders with the worst punishment we have (aside from DDoSnerds) - the banhammer.

"Being a tool" on the otherhand might as well be the norm in Rene-society, considering all the tools we've had over the years (yourself included). But being a tool generally does nothing much more than annoy people. Using triggerbot and raping everyone in a sniper server (ARTIFICIALLY) ruins the entire premise of playing a video game.

So remind me, who is the "tool" again?

good post, just one thing I'd amend though... the worst thing in renesociety isn't cheating (that's the 2nd worst, and itself probably takes another second place to actually creating the cheats) - worst thing is crashing servers/ddosing ppl etc

True that. The thing that really sucks about people flooding others is that if they have a proper bot net (or friend with a bot net), it's basically impossible to figure out who's doing it.

why would you go into someone's server just to spam radio commands at the players? that seems a bit immature to me were it me in this situation and i'd offended them, i'd apologize to Zunnie and his players it would make sense for others to do the same, unless their actual intention(s) was/were exactly that - to offend Zunnie and his players common sense and decency sort of thing, i suppose

Exactly, typing sparta was all in good fun. I typed it what like 3 times in the video? Not major spam itself. Sorry if that upset you Zunnie but I am not sorry that it was fun and we had a good laugh about it. I may run the Jelly weekend lobby wars but I do not lead the community wars and I do not control or take responsibility for any actions done by anyone in commwars anymore since the NS vs Area54 commwar dispute that fucked a ton of shit up.

We all stopped when the host pm all saying to "STFU" I believe some were muted but everyone stopped. And I was not part of the actual public server spamming so I am not getting involved with that.

I love zunnie and he is a great guy, but fuck sakes take those stupid sound effects off your server =p

That "move" one is the most annoying fucking thing ever. I join ultra aow and 1 person types that command once and everyone in the server flips a shit on that one person for typing it once.

Thanks crush

I understand its funny to spam the sounds and we usually dont bother too much with anyone who does a few taunts every now and then, but when people reaally spam just to be annoying they will get muted or banned (temporarily).

I have since the commwar incident put a timer on the taunts of 5 seconds per taunt lol.

And yea, maybe i should remove the 'move' and 'sparta' taunt, but they are nice lol Just sucks when people start to really spam the shit out of them.

[edit] I don't care what happened on the commwar server btw, i just didn't particularly like it they decided to join our main server and do it there too.

We all stopped when the host pm all saying to "STFU" I believe some were muted but everyone stopped. And I was not part of the actual public server spamming so I am not getting involved with that.

stfu you didn't stop look at video right as tiny said stfu you continued don't lie.

The only one who slightly continued was ehh saying "mad" like 4 times and he actually got muted for it I believe.

We stopped you retard.. I typed "sparta?" see the question mark at the end of it. It was not a spam sound effect it was a joke word with no sound sparta comment. The "bitch" sound effect was completely seperate. Zunnie and I both enjoy the "bitch" one. When I helped him test the maps we both got a laugh using that one. If you want to accuse my 1 final sound effect of the bitch as continuing spam I think you have got issues.

So shut up you dumbass. The fight was over and here you continue to troll. I guess we continue and I can say that is how the Rencorner community will be represented by you being a jackass as always. Maybe they will suspend you for 3 days on the forums like Area54 did because you are a complete retard who just picks fights and then you dont get to sign up for their next community war like last time. Hows that sound?

zunnie wrote on Wed, 14 November 2012 19:10Thanks crush

I understand its funny to spam the sounds and we usually dont bother
too much with anyone who does a few taunts every now and then, but when people reaally spam just to be annoying they will get muted or banned (temporarily).

I have since the commwar incident put a timer on the taunts of 5 seconds per taunt lol.

And yea, maybe i should remove the 'move' and 'sparta' taunt, but they are nice lol Just sucks when people start to really spam the shit out of them.

[edit] I don't care what happened on the commwar server btw, i just didn't particularly like it they decided to join our main server and do it there too.

See, if more people had the attitude of zunnie, this wouldn't have turned into a dramafest.

There's a difference between:

1. playing for 2 hours in a VERY fun commwar, getting extremely light-hearted because of it on a HILARIOUS map and spamming some commands and laughing like you're a horde of drunks on TS, infecting eachother with laughter, simply being naive and unaware of anyone being angry/annoyed.
2. Trying to maliciously ruin someone's playing experience because you're a mean ladyish person, like that azazel/cooraotaanoa or something thing person.

Zunnie at least realises that 1. is the case here. What HARM was seriously done here? Is renegade completely ruined for everyone who heard any of the taunts? Are people going to have nightmares? Have people gone deaf or insane? Or did people simply have to listen to a VERY FUCKING FUNNY taunt being spammed for AT MOST a minute. Wow. What a complete disaster.
Renegade is ruined FOREVER man.

The only one who thinks 2. is the case here is that triggerbot faggot who is only trying to start something because he has some grudge against jelly, and people actually believe he's being "honest", even though he's been proven to be one of the biggest liars in renegade ever. Remember he DENIED he was cheating when he got caught. Just think about it.

Listen to zunnie, not craaotonran

When did we lie to win? How the fuck does that make any sense? n00bstories never kicked me out you retard I am still a half mod there. The server is dead so I went to Jelly. There is no point in sticking around at n00bstories when the majority of player base hates the admins. I want to play renegade not cry about a dead server. Jelly accepted me with open arms and I did not even ask to be a part of their community. You on the other hand go begging for modships at ever server and NOBODY WANTS YOU CAUSE YOU MADE CHEATS. You suck and nobody likes you, an you fucking suck at renegade. I am mad because you are the dumbest smuck I have ever met on this forum.

Nobody wants you. We all know your mod applications failed at Area54 and Rencorner. Your Area54 team was filled with n00bs. I bet you feel fucking special. He is probably talking about the Islands victory they had when we all left to go on with our lives because they took 30 minutes to get their players in the server.

He just can't accept his defeat to me so he has to try and find some hope that he "killed buildings" lol That was the most pathetic attempt to make yourself seem like a good player.

I'm not crying, I felt this issue needed to be addressed as it didn't seem fair on the players that got spammed and it has been by Liquid - there's no bad blood between myself and Jelly, I give Jelly logs from time to time, like when we caught another [-hoh-] with triggerbot + rr. Liquid and I maintain a dialogue and we always speak amicably. Life's too short to hold grudges for ever after all, I still dislike the game mode that is Marathon, but meh that doesn't mean I don't like Jelly.

crushu06 wrote on Wed, 14 November 2012 19:31I am only fired up to troll croatoan. Him and I get along well and he decided to start attacking everyone for being disrespecful so I think I got carried away with my boredom and started fighting back =p

I still love you and I can see your passionate about this issue, Okay it may seem like a "small" issue, as everyone clearly was having a good time on ts - but remember the mpf players wasn't on TS and clearly didn't appreciate being spammed. I'm glad you agreed in a earlier post that it was in fact immature.

I've never seen you rage so hard on the forums, saying "fucking retard" to g1d eesh, crushy being mean.

I like Zunnie and his server and I didn't want this issue to just be swept underneath the carpet like so many wanted, it had to be addressed and has now been.

Kisses.
