The Prize

This pack contains 4 items:

- Worms Ultimate Mayhem Deluxe (Game)
- Worms Ultimate Mayhem - Custommization Pack DLC
- Worms Ultimate Mayhem - Single Player Pack DLC
- Worms Ultimate Mayhem - Multiplayer Pack DLC

Available on Steam only

What to do?

I would like to hold another Renegade Event next week and need a banner asap.

The banner should be MPF and Renegade Themed with the text and/or imagery from "Le Mans 24".

Perhaps some people know what Le Mans 24 is: It is a race in France that lasts 24 hours.

The idea is to have a 24 hour timelimit on the server next week on all AOW maps.

If anyone can provide me with a cool banner i would be most pleased

It should be 500 pixels in width and about 250 up to 350 pixels in height, you are of course allowed to exceed the limit a little bit, if it is really too big i will let you know

Thanks for your submissions.

Please post your submission in this topic:

I don't suggest playing on MPF UltraAOW to anyone. MPF will randomly ban you for "being too good" or "cheating" without proof (which they explicitly state). Then, when you make a ban thread about it on their forums they immediately close it and they start trolling you when you mention it here on the Renegade community forums.

They'll ignore your videos of you playing really well and ignore any pleas to show your innocence. Then they start ignoring the discussion completely. One of their admins, MDK@ENGLAND, who's banned from the Renegade community forums made some YouTube comments (which he later deleted) accusing me of having a "100.5 KD" playing against snipers. He also stated MPF has Fraps recordings/videos of me playing on their server, yet they don't want to show them EVEN after repeatedly asking for them.

Even if you're an outstanding community member like me who's been beta testing scripts 4.0 since May 2011, has caught tons of cheaters and made the most server plugins (some of them like one making it cost to refill RUNNING on their server).

Play on Jelly Marathon instead where moderators don't randomly ban people without proof.
