Hey guys I am looking to get back into playing Renegade again. Not sure if anyone remembers me. I went by the name Cloud or BBFCLOUD. I played on different servers and I was a pretty decent sniper. Some players I remember are Expert, Deathsta2, Whiskey, and I am sure there are others. I remember H2O being the top clan and I was wondering if there are still clan battles going on?

I also wondering what skins are people using at the moment. Not looking for anything fancy except a nice reticle and anything else that people suggest that isn't considered cheating.

You should get scripts 4.0 from www.tiberiantechologies.org
It fixes lots of bugs and stuff and makes Renegade better

^ trist can suck a fat one

HI CLOUD

Whiskey started playing again also. We still do lobby wars and shit on jelly teamspeak daily. It's pretty fun.

It varies! Usually during the weekdays we will play anywhere from 7pm to Midnight eastern standard time. that's usually a popular 5 hour period depending on when people get on.

Weekends can vary cause we played this past Saturday at like noon til 3pm but can easily get games anypoint during the night.

Just join Jelly TS and if you see me logiical jonrambo pinball whiskey or br4d (helldoom) on there is a good chance of us playing. We are the normal 3v3 team currently sometimes mrhero101 or xpert will join in. Karmai occasionally and hopefully Jamie (nunega) will get some time off work start playing over Christmas break along with simpee (moby2222) finishing his league tournament and may join back up.

Also possible talk of clearsh0t getting ren installed cause hes been on TS while we have been playing Pub and mentioned installing it again

BBFCloud, wow it's been a long time lol.
Welcome back.

You may notice scripts 4.0 adds some bright smoke clouds that block the view during tank fights - I recommend finding skins to fix that.

We've been playing a decent amount of funwars lately, I've been involved in about 4 or 5 series in the past week. Team remix as well so you don't need to have a clan to join in. Just get into the habit of joining Jelly teamspeak whenever you play Ren, its the best chance of getting into a game.

Do you happen to have clear smoke skins that you could link because I noticed that in the marathon server I was playing on. Couldn't really see anything.

Same here, I was looking to get back into renegade. I recently purchased the Ultimate C&C collection because it was only 15.99. So now I have all of my C&C games back. What's the average player population on Renegade?

depends on the time of day
Jelly Marathon fills up at some point every day, and you can find games in MPF or RenCorner as well
