<http://www.ren-x.com>

Hello people: Moderator Applications are now OPEN.

We are looking for some good moderators to look after the four 64 player servers we will be running. It does not matter where you are coming from as long as your English is (very) good enough.

We will run a 64 player server running on Xeon systems in The United States, The Netherlands and France.

We're in the process of creating our generic rules so you can help with that if interested.

Please note that the use of (m)IRC is required and Teamspeak 3 is recommended although optional.

Thanks for applying!

In all seriousness, you posted this here?

Are you stoned?

P.S. I can't be a mod if I use a different IRC client other than mIRC?
