Do you reckon it's the same guy? Certainly seems angry enough at what is a really trivial issue in Space Engineers...

Zeratul is a widely used name, is from the most popular RTS game (StarCraft), so..

I had no idea it was from a game... I searched for it on Google and there were almost no results so I figured it must be fairly unique... guess not EDIT: Just ran it through Google again and got lots of results, guess I must have mis-keyed it the first time around!

Zeratul is probably just a name used to show rage

Zeratul is a widely used name. That's why 90% of the time i have to use Z3RATUL99, or some other variation, in video games. I'm not sure that's enough rage to be connected to 2400 though imo. Looks like he finally learned to spell, assuming it is him.

Can confirm that it is indeed the Zeratul we know and love. I recall him using both Howitz and Zeratul multiple times, wouldn't surprise me if he's in the Hall of Fame too.

I knew it sounded familiar! That guy bitches and whines in the SE forums all the time about things he has decided are "wrong" in the game... we should all register and PM him with quotes from that topic, see if he remembers

Haha. Possibly, but is it really worth the effort to troll some more?

Also, it's been a while. How have you been Danpaul? Still with ApocRising?

It has been a while indeed! I'm doing well thanks, got a new job back at the start of 2014 which is going well and I'm enjoying life. How about yourself?

I'm still working on AR on and off, it's looking really good these days.
