I have to say that scrolling bar is childish. Amusing but childish. I could care less though.

That's the story and you'll see why it makes sense to have the text where it is. I know it's a bit childish but I'm dealing with a child. I'll remove it very soon, don't worry.

So this has to do with something that happened at n00bstories? Why is it on the Renegade Public Forums as well? I thought the 2 Forums were going to be separate entities. Or are the Renegade Public Forums dedicated to making fun of n00bs as well?

behavior is not really appropriate, especially from a Moderator. But that is just my opinion and this is your Forum; you can do as you see fit.

Because the button that I had to remove existed on these forums as well. Therefore, it's not something that just happened on n00bstories.

Since I cannot figure out what you people are talking about, I assume whatever it was is already gone.
