First ... Hey strangers... been yeeeeeears!

Well what brings me here after all these years... well as dead and dull as the game is I just cannot get into anything else these days...COD sucks, sorry to those that like it. War of Thrones is just eating at my pocket, love the game btw and my husband, Dogg's top pick Guild Wars 2 sucks ass even more... sorry again GW fans. Plus my old RenWarz freaks are wanting a reunion of the game this summer and playing on our WinServer machine we have hosting all of our other games just isn't an option.

But...I am now a Apple creep and have only a macbook, without a CDROM, so have been unable to use the portkit thats out to install it...does anyone have a work around that they know about, that can help an old gal out.

Thanks and have a great day

NM, after checking around I found what I need to get it working I think...thanks Speedy059 for hosting that HUGE directory of Renegade items, love yah like a brother from another mother, or something like that.

EDIT:

That didn't work lol, but was able to install Origin and buy The Ultimate Collection atm on sale for $4.99, I know what a waste buy shit happens.
Plays great and can see XWIS so YAY one for the Chick!
