I remember there being a program that completes singleplayer for you and puts the entire log into your saved games. I can't seem to find it.. Would anyone have a link for it ? Thanks!

I could be mistaken here, but I recall reading about an INI file you can edit to achieve this.(and doing so myself) At least you can do this to have all the autosaves(for lack of a better word) for each mission.

I did this years ago though and can't seem to find anything on it now. If anyone else knows I'm curious now.

I'll keep looking for it when I have spare time if no one else knows/remembers.

I did find the answer to this question. However, I'm not sure if I'm allowed to state it on the forums.

I sent a pm to you.

who gives a fuck
