i guess thats why they closed WW office, clueless people dont run a buisness very well. I guess they may as well let WL run it, since they let them before anyway. now its official.

Good luck getting anything pass the moderators, i see they already locked CJ's thread down on Noobstories because they didnt like the content about clan WL.

This forum is not run by clan -WL-. Please don't bring your CW vs WL crap into here. Im sure you can take a random poll and find out that everyone is quite pleased with the new forums and its moderators. In fact you will find that even obvious flame threads like this one are not deleted, and I even have the ability to call you a "fucking retard" and not be censored for it.

So much for your argument.

The thread was locked because the "story" was just a posting of game results of CW vs WL from months ago. It did not meet the qualifications of a story.

Yes like westwood and EA could make a site this good...

This site is the work of Crimson & Blazer and no way would Westwood ever make something this good...

Ahhhhh I.C. So CW or members of said clan were digging from the bottom of the outhouse in order to try and make this place stink.

I for one like it here. I like the freedom I have to call anyone I see fit a "Fucker, Dumbass, Shit Head....." Well you get the point.

So jsv62707, why dig up old shit? If you want to post some new shit here, just drop your pants and take a picture of your underwear. I'm sure there is a lot of new.....and old shit there for you to talk about.

Well the ONLY reason I came here was I saw posts flaming CW on our site from a bunch of WL members and traced it back to noob stories. Then I saw WW punted the renegade forum to a loser site and it is now officially part of noobstories. Go ahead, take your best shot at me, this site is not worth my 2 posts on it anyway.

It's just typical of WL to come to the CW site and stir up trouble again. No one from CW comes to this site or noob stories (CJs no longer been part of CW for months now) Flame away losers, I'll never see it. You guys are always welcome to come post on our sites, we always enjoy making fun of you fools. If you want me to see any of your replies, you can respond on the CW site, where there is a real renegade ladder and a free renegade forum.

WL stirred up trouble? you stupid dumbass, LMAO. Commjared of whatever the fuck his name is started bitching at WL on n00bstories, obviously in an attempt to stir up trouble.

And no, I won't respond at the CW site, and neither will any other WL members since all you can do is flame and bitch about WL.

Man how old are you? I've seen your picture, you look in the mid 20's but you act like a 13 year old, ever gotten away from your PC? I think not.

Same goes for the rest of the retards at CW.

Adios, kids!

Let me translate his n00b-speak to English.

"real Renegade ladder" = only for clans. This ladder has been broken for about a month, maybe longer... they acknowledge this on their forums, and yet Oompah, aka "Clan wars" hasn't fixed it. The admins are not responsive to correction requests and there are several complaints about THAT on their forums as well. And yet the complain about n00bstories... at least my site functions correctly... :rolleyes:

:rolleyes: LIES

I reported errors a month ago that were never addressed. WL played 6 mathces of 9v9 and 10v10 and won them all, and the CW ladder got PHP errors and never credited us the wins. CW never corrected the problem or awarded us the wins. There's a post on their forums dated February 9th about this. That's over a month. Don't call me a liar.

Doesn't mean it didn't happen to me. I know a PHP parse error when I see one. I'm a PHP developer.

I think we've had it happen once before where our games didn't register like that. It happened with the games we played against the PITS. It didn't really matter though since they would have only been worth like 10 points each.

Otherwise it's the same as point pushing. When a low ranked clan does it, and doesn't get very high up the ladder, no one really cares. But when your fighting for the top spot and cheat, then it becomes a problem. And the admins usually solve it. But it doesn't really appear as though -WL- has been competing very much in the last few months. Just a few games here and there.

But the main reason why it wasn't corrected at the time is because, none of the Renegade admins were around for what seemed like most of February. There were quite a few games that needed to be changed and what not. Not sure exactly what what going on, but they eventually got almost everything fixed up, including banning -LT-. They might not have gotten every single little problem, but they are doing are pretty damn good job. The ladder isn't perfect and could probably reward newb bashers a bit less, but that just comes to personal opinion. The one thing that ladder did do is keep the Renegade competitive clanning community a very good alternative to the WS clan ladder. Which never had any admin support whatsoever.
