Blkwasp and I adopted two baby cockatiels last yearone of them is named Havoc and One is named Butter.....well Havoc has now picked up on some of the game commands and sounds and its totally funny.

He says " Move out " and something that sounds like "fall back" then he makes like Artillery firing noises. Anyway I can get some audio fixed up I will post it.

You got in range of the Obelisk, it began to charge up, you moved just out of range, and it still fired, but since you're out of range it didn't hurt you...
