Unfortunatley the AI is really really stupid so there really is no way to get them in.

Otherwise it is better to play single in multiplayer LAN mode... you'll get every map, every mod... every setting...

actually if you hit ctrl+9 ctrl+2 they will get in. eventually they'll start text messaging back, coming up with plans on how to take over the enemy's base. then they'll just stand there a little .more, run around in circles, shoot the wall, come up with crap strategy, get ownt, then leave the game. then you'll realize those aren't AI players, but -WL- clan members

Yes and that's why we were top of the clan ladder everytime we tried. :rolleyes:

*Waits for CW and all the other WL hating retards to come along*

What we have here is a big misunderstanding...

1. kawolsky didn't say who he was speaking to, so it's anyones guess who he was referring to.
2. DaveGMM thought he was talking to those who said MP Lan could be used instead of Practice.
3. NodBugger thinks kawolsky is answering Johnny5's question of, how do you get the AI to use the APC. (which would be the most obvious person he was talking to.)

I'd be willing to bet that kawolsky was answering Johnny5's question.

And props to DaveGMM for not taking a litte time to actually ask who he was talking to. :rolleyes:
