Ok, i have not been posting on these forums, as following two - 20 boards is a little difficult, and have been spending my time with programming, troubleshooting, etc...

now i get links to this board on a daily basis, i look them over, and go on, but today... i have see something disturbing, and a little likey to piss me off...

RenEvo links have become "spam" on this board...

well, my opinion of the person that said that, and there actions, have become drastically lower, i am just trying to help out the community, and am silently getting bashed for it... do i care, not really, just lose respect for some people thats all.

anywayz, yes i do read this forum, will i reply, doubtful, as i tend not to have time to answer flame wars, if you need technical help on BR .Net, there is a dedicated forum for it on RenEvo's Website, if you want info on the Dead6 Expansion Pack, also, a dedicated forum for it on RenEvo's Web Site, if you need to just ask me a question, or tell me to fuck off, there is also that on RenEvo's forum.

Never has there been a n00bstories vs. RenEvo... all of you that made that little tiff up in your head are morons and should be drug out by your testicles and ovaries and hung to die.

Another note....

Suggestions are welcome... flames are ignored... if you want RenEvo to evolve something for you, we will, if you want us to just STFU, we will talk louder.

It's spam when Carl posts nothing but RenEvo links.

This forum isn't just for RenEvo, my dearest Dante. He might benefit from trying to interact and talk with people instead of being an advertising tool.

I don't see n00bstories.com staff advertising on your forums over and over, just for the sole purpose of it.

So if your opinion of me is lessened... Your choice. I'm not going to tell you something that I don't believe in.

That's correct. I have no problem with RenEvo and in fact support it, which is evidenced by the fact that I moved my server to REOL when WOL was down. I did have a problem with Carl but that's been resolved.

Well i cant say i tried, is this all cause i managed to get the better of you in #n00bstories after you tried to insult me, cause ever since then you have been on my case....

There you go again talking down to me :rolleyes:, i do have a idea what i am on about cause i do read posts (eg: <http://www.n00bstories.com/renforums/viewtopic.php?t=384> ) and have also notices negative vibes floating around and its foolish of you to assume that i havent unless you have me on 24 hour suvilence.

O and refering to this part "No one cares what you think" do you think people care what you say just cause you go around insulting and talking down to people, well i sure dont for one i respect people like crimson and dante who got where they did by hard work a sense of humour and some moral decency...

And if you aint got anything nice to say then i dont want to speak to you case closed.

Yes, due to the similarity to my domain name, the ownership was transferred to me and I purchased them a new domain to replace it.
