The ONLY thing he did to my map was take some DSAPO stuff out and put in heightfield snowdrifts.

HOW CAN YOU HAVE SNOW IN PLACES WHERE IT DOESN'T HAVE SNOW FALLING?

HOW CAN YOU CALL THAT MAP HIS WHEN IT'S OBVIOUSLY GLACIER FLYING, RENAMED, WITH CRAPPY FPS IN A ONE PLAYER GAME! LOOK AT THE FPS, IT HITS 14 AND GOES BELOW.

of all, I did a comparison of FPS's with my map and your map. And mine was only a little lower than yours but you have to remember, I have AI, 8 of them to be exact. And if you really knew anything about what you were talking about, you'd know that. AI does slow down your FPS. And point 2, I did a lot more to this map than your vocalizing. But thanks for the support. And I

Pretty soon, thousands and many thousands will have my version. So thanks for your help, but no thanks. Just get used to it. Your not the only map per here, your just one that tries to take credit for others work, you did not build the models used in your version of Glacier Flying, you did not

That isn't my computer you fucking retard.

That's Crimson's computer, IF YOU HAD EVEN LOOKED AT THE IMAGE GALLERY.

She runs a GF3 or 4, with a good load of RAM as well, and usually has 80 FPS in every map... EXCEPT YOUR RIPOFF OF MY WORK.

You're not going to get thousands of people to play your map. Number one, the community will not host the work of a thief. Number two, I'll be making sure that you're going down if you ever release this map.

Um, ok, if it's the AI dropping the FPS, then remove them and see where it is. It sounds to me like you're admitting you can't get the FPS any better than ACK did.

You didn't come up with the name, either -- you ripped it off from Westwood as well... how does that make you any better than him?

And by the way, the computer is mine. It's a P4 1.7 with a Mobility Radeon 7500 and 256 MB RAM. Those screen shots were taken with good FPS... sometimes I got 28, but mostly I got 13-14 and sometimes spiked down to 0-2. Yes, 0 fucking FPS while it tried to poll stuff.

well dumbass Captkurt01 has successfully shown how to be a true n00b...

#1, your AI sucks

#2, you ripped off the map, or are as clever at positioning the c-130 as ack (i mean exactly the same place)

#3, you retextured it massively shitty

#4, basically... it sucks

#5, from what i see, you didn't have any higher FPS than ack's version (although you claimed it would skyrocket higher)

#6, you put snow... where it wouldn't go

#7, how is snow falling from cement cielings with no trace of snow ? see #6

#8, the big WHITE ASS snow drifts... come on, unless you live in a place like south dakota, they don't get that big without a snow shovel.

basically, "go away, or i shall taunt you a second time..."

This map belongs Aircraftkiller, WS gave the base terrain or whatever to him to finish. Not to you, me or anybody else. You previously say you've modified this map to make it far better, yet all I see is a whole load of white blobs.

Jesus, you can't even do a good job stealing a map. I'd hate to see a map you actually made yourself. I'd stop now before you make a bigger fool of yourself than you have already done.

OMG, if your reply isn't one of the most hypocritical pieces of shit I've seen yet...

"Pretty soon, thousands and many thousands will have my version". Lol...

First, There aren't thousands and many thousands of players that play Renegade. Second, thousands and many thousands of players will not play it, more like 20 in total, most of them to see what you actually changed in it, and to test it against your allegation that it's better. If they already have ACK's Glacier, why would they download some cheap ripoff from some little kid who isn't mature and skilled enough to make one by himself?

"You're not the only mapper here, you're just one that tries to take credit for others' work, you did not build the models used in your version of Glacier Flying, you did not even come up with the name, Earth, get out of your twilight zone."

Well obviously he isn't the only mapper here... And look who's talking! You hypocritical POS, how can you attack ACK for "taking credit for others' work", when that's all you're doing. You did not build anything in Glacier except for a few shitty little models and AI, you did not even come up with a new name for it. You have no talent, you can't even make your own map, you have to steal from others.

Oh and, "Ass/ck" is that the only thing your tiny, immature little mind can come up with? lol... You are really pathetic.

A few words come to mind, "thief", "n00b", "idiot".

You call yourself a map maker, and yet you show off crap like that as if it was the best thing to ever come to Renegade! The map has poor texturing, out-of-place snow mounds, horrible FPS, and plenty more flaws. 8 AI bots shouldn't cause that big of a FPS drop. Let's not forget the fact that it is a total rip-off of Glacier Flying. :rolleyes:

 2. Let's see, shitty AI, shitty texturing, shitty models, shitty idea to put snow in. Hey! I found a great unique name for it, "Shitty Map", yes it would fit your version, and it's unique.
 3. If n00b was in the dictionary, your picture would be there.

---Taken from the "My new BF42 (Renegade) Guard Towers" post--- hey on that site it looks like you do have a modified glacier flying, and in my eyes i think thats wrong.

If the creator (AircraftKiller) tells you not to use his map, edit it or use any kind of objects from it, then you shouldn't.

i think what you are doing is wrong and i would just stop trying to make other peoples maps better, just try and make your own.

You can already see that people are flaming you for using someone else's work, and it will carry on and get worse if you continue to do so.

So, mate, just stop. Don't use any peoples work without their permission otherwise people will flame you and more than likely no one will trust you again even if you do start doing your own work.

thats all the advice i can give.

don't take this as a flame or an argument, just as advice, im no ones enemy.

Capt, Kurt --

I, for one - will not host this bastard version of AircraftKiller's map.

You basically took a map - added a few changes - and called it your own.

I see nothing that makes it so much different than the original for you to even assume this is "your" work.

Pushing some meshes up though the ground - and adding a few presets does not make a map yours.

and your justification saying Aircraftkiller "stole" the map from Westwood so that allows you to steal it from him is just hypocritical that stops anything you say - do - or spaz about less than worthy to listen to.

Suffer the id's

No matter how much your little mind thinks - you cannot defend this...

You have made a fool of yourself and lost any help from me on this forum or any forum.

But then again - what can we expect from someone who's nick is "captkurt" -- very original....

You should never add stuff to other peoples maps, even ACK finished WW maps, without permission (at least if You plan on distributing them).

Its really bad manners and the whole Intellectual Property thing may make it Illegal.

My maps arnt that great but at least I made them myself, except for a few models that I got from others and used with permission.

sense it came to me free with the software that I also received for free, All I did was very simple, map Glacier Flying to get any thing for my version, but if this is how so many of you feel, then fine, this amends most of what was done.

This is too little, too late. Your reputation in and around here will be scared for life.

Westwood never released Glacier Flying, they gave it to ACK, and he released it, the version that you got out of Commando is ACK's. So would you sit by and let someone take one of your maps, add a little bit of crap to it, and say it's theirs?

FYI, this map is supposed to be LESS FPS than Glacier_Flying, and yet it's a full 20 FPS less than ACK's map.

For my test, I ran both maps in non-dedicated 1 player game. You can see that I tabbed out the list so you could see I'm the only one. Plus, the outgoing is 0kbps. I drove a normal minigunner in an APC to the same spot on each map and stood still for a few seconds to allow the FPS to stabilize. Here are the results:

Aircraftkiller's version of the map was a steady 70 FPS in these conditions.
<http://www.n00bstories.com/image.view.php?id=1048014935>

CaptKurt's version of the map was 50 FPS, which is 14% more laggy.
<http://www.n00bstories.com/image.view.php?id=2067941430>

And before you say I have a shitty system, here are my stats:

- * AMD Athlon XP 2400+ (which is 2 GHz)
- * 1024 MB PC2700 DDR RAM
- * GF4 Ti4800SE (best GF4 available at the moment to the best of my knowledge)
- * 40GB WD Hard drive 7200 RPM

Most of my shit is top-of-the-line.

So what does this prove? The BASIC PREMISE the CaptKurt claimed is that his version was HIGHER FPS than ACK's map.

CrimsonFYI, this map is supposed to be LESS FPS than Glacier_Flying, and yet it's a full 20 FPS less than ACK's map.

For my test, I ran both maps in non-dedicated 1 player game. You can see that I tabbed out the list so you could see I'm the only one. Plus, the outgoing is 0kbps. I drove a normal minigunner in an APC to the same spot on each map and stood still for a few seconds to allow the FPS to stabilize. Here are the results:

Aircraftkiller's version of the map was a steady 70 FPS in these conditions.

<http://www.n00bstories.com/image.view.php?id=1048014935>

CaptKurt's version of the map was 50 FPS, which is 14% more laggy.

<http://www.n00bstories.com/image.view.php?id=2067941430>

And before you say I have a shitty system, here are my stats:

- * AMD Athlon XP 2400+ (which is 2 GHz)
- * 1024 MB PC2700 DDR RAM
- * GF4 Ti4800SE (best GF4 available at the moment to the best of my knowledge)
- * 40GB WD Hard drive 7200 RPM

Most of my shit is top-of-the-line.

So what does this prove? The BASIC PREMISE the CaptKurt claimed is that his version was HIGHER FPS than ACK's map.

my clame to higher FPS was not this map, if you go back and read the post's it was my version of the same name, no AI, etc.... not the map in question.

So, removing 8 little AI guys is going to get back 20 FPS? Why don't you remove the polygon-rich snowdrifts from hell while you're at it.

Because once he does that, and takes out the untextured guard towers, it will be C&C_Glacier_Flying again

How did you get the map and put it back into gmax, or renX, whatever u used. Or did you just put it back into commando, if you did any of those I would like to know how you did it and if you need any programs, I already know that you need an XCC mixer, but do you need anything else. I am going to add bots to maps that I think would be cool to have bots, but I am not going to posat them on a site and take credit for ripping off someone elses work.

Ahahahah, i didnt read through the thread yet, but that map fucking sucks. Adding heightfeild underneath the map it nothing. And 8 AI? That's bull shit, I have over 20 before my maps even began to slow down, just look at Mutant Desert. God DAMN that map sucks! AHAHAHA! And you think people are going to download it? If people didnt like the FPS in the original version, why int he hell would people want to download it if it was 'a bit below the original'? Dude, make your own maps.

If you don't like his maps then don't use them -period. However others stealing maps and making minor modications without creators consent is lame, immoral, stupid, sick, n00bish and maybe illegal.

If Captkurt01 wants to make maps, fine - he can... but I feel that stealing someone else's map is wrong. What makes it worse in my view, is that he has failed to ask or gain permission to use/modify the maps AND WORSE STILL LABELS IT AS HIS OWN.

Since Captkurt01 did modify/steal that map which belongs to Ack I believe that he isn't behaving like a "ACK, you must be a rich kid with no life who has fools for friends.... that's why you wanna boss us around..." but a person who has been witness to someone stealing his work....

He and others have given much to this community with maps, mods, programs, server admin utils. It is typical of n00bs not to recognize the effect placed in it.

BTW it's Nod not NOD.... see renegade next time you load it -_-

I know, just trying to tick ack off.... I made many maps before, 12, all not meant to be "westwood and ack quality" but because of ack they took one look, said POS, and didn't download.

Also, I severely hate ack, period...and yes I'm within driving distance of you... I would spraypaint your lawn, but it's legal for me to mow it.... hint hint* :twisted:

also, don't call me newb, just cuz I prefer to act like it to tick ACK off doesn't mean I am one...also I have edited, and it's not illegal...

It is made with a tool he did not make, for an engine he didn't make, with ideas HE DID NOT make (RA1 models and maps), only be illegal if I sold his maps....

BTW, I said that about NOD meaning the newer EA stuff SINCE renegade....it doesn't matter either, it's just a game.... ACK takes it to serious....

ACK, if you're gonna do this, you won't get the job, you're too ignorant, that's what I'm trying to say.

Rather it's illegal or not has nothing at all to do with rather or not you sell it. Stealing games, or other stuff out of a store is illegal if you sell what you stole afterwards, and it's still illegal if you just give it away afterwards.

Everyone owns all copyrights to everything they make.

of all, I did a comparison of FPS's with my map and your map. And mine was only a little lower than yours but you have to remember, I have AI, 8 of them to be exact. And if you really knew anything about what you were talking about, you'd know that. AI does slow down your FPS. And point 2, I did a lot more to this map than your vocalizing. ACK is quite correct. You automatically own the rights to everything you create. If you want to prove that you created it, then you should register it in some way (bank vault, self-mailing, lawyer, etc). However, there's no such thing as a "copyright licence" would any court ever give you any money for something that cost you diddly squat to make? I just dont think they would take you seriously as there is no money involved in any of this...

and by the way...taken from <http://whatiscopyright.org/>

"When does Copyright Protection begin, and what is required?

Copyright protection begins when any of the above described work is actually created and fixed in a tangible form.

For example, my brother is a musician and he lives in the United States. When he writes new show that he is the author, places it in an envelope and mails it to himself without opening it. His copyright begins at the moment he puts his idea in a tangible form by printing the lyrics out on paper. He then registers his copyright with the U.S. Copyright Office which is a requirement in order to sue for monetary damages should a violation of his copyright arise. Uh, time is money. So if he puts his time into making something he can claim it as a learning experience to build his skills for a possible job.

If you make furnature out of your garage just for your home, and someone comes in and steals it or burns it..... damn right you will be compensated, even if you werent going to sell it in the firstplace.

That outlined what you can and cannot do with that file without permission - if I recall correctly it said that the file belonged solely to Ack and you weren't allowed to modify it.

Thus if you did modify it, then you are in violation of that - just like if you install software it usually has an EULA, usage agreement etc
