freaking pansies. Nice attitude in life. Can't wait until you get a real problem, lets see if you can just "quit" that too.

I had respect for Cebt, but that was gone a long time ago before he tried and played mediator.

As for slayer- :S sucks to see you go.

I don't have much respect for quitters. WTF does someone flaming someone else have to do with some project you are working on? Relax man.

Cebti am hereby announcing that im leaving the renegade community bacause of the fact that i cant take all the flamings and unfriendly attitudes anymore, i just hope for those that are staying that it will get alot better by time

If you can't take it, why do you attack others yourself? The only flames against you I've seen were started by you, they were only replies to your flames.

Hmm, stop getting in the middle of arguments, and stop starting them yourself and you won't see any more flames against you, how simple is that? :rolleyes:

sir pheonixx i dont care about people flaming me cus i know when i get flamed im asking for it myself but if your referring to my post where i asked for a tutorial to make working tank treads, then i didnt mean to flame ACK but when i see it from others point of view i can understand why it was taken as a flaming and i DID apologize and delete his name from the post.

spreegem: im not sure if we can do that since we MAY be starting on a TS mod for generals and are maybe going to use some of the models there, but if we dont ill contact ya.....

ohh and imdgr8one what did i do to make you angry? whatever it is then im sorry... (sorry but i couldnt get much out of the post you wrote)

What you did is right now. Just because of your quitting. Honestly, when we all actually grow up and get [b]REAL[b] jobs and stuff like that, than do you think it'll be all peachy? You're going to get those problems wherever you go. If you don't like someone, are you just going to "quit" that? No, because you'd need the $. Now I'm not saying that this is like a job, or anything like that. But I'm saying that you ARE just leaving because of something that you started. I understand you're point now. But nonetheless, it is pointless to leave. Go enjoy the lagilicious Generals and their "peachy" community forum. :rolleyes: Realize what you are doing.....If ACK is the HUGE fucking menace that everyone says he is, than why isn't EVERYONE flaming him? Because people want to argue and make this place a kindergarten classroom. I accept your apology

He was referring to Cept and his reason for leaving. Not liking one person isn't a reason for leaving, just ignore him and problem solved.

It was Cpo64 who made that map not Cept (no wonder you got no reply). I can see how you could have got confused, their names are similar. As for the cinematics he used, I was also going to contact him about it. If you do find any information, let me know. I'm not planning to use them in a map just wanted to know how he did it and activating it from a PT. You may find him around the Renegade Evolution froums but i'm not sure.

why don't you just give it a rest and they will send it to you whenever they want. posting a "please send me your stuff so i can finish your mod" reply every 3-5 hours isn't going to get it to you any sooner.
