Hello, I have been gone from Renegade for awhile, and came back to notice the rankings are no longer working? Are they never gonna work again? Or do they take a long time to update? I have been playing a few games a day for the past week or so, and they have not changed... Is there plans to make it work again?? Any info would be greatly appreciated...

From what I heard they are permanently screwed. You can thank EA for that Just curious... but must you reply to every thread? Posts like this are irrelevant.

Not for me! My ranking is constantly updated in "My Information." And when I win or lose a ranked game it actually is recorded!

Ranks are working fine for me, when i go and check it though and click on the little game ID thingy, it says somethin like this page failed to load or is invalid. then i tried the same thing on the 'westwood' site and it gives me the crap about this page can not be displayed...dunno why though... :rolleyes:
