Does any body know the dude viper-fud (sp) He has the server sspoo3. I was banned from his server tonight. First time I have ever been banned since I purchased the game about a year ago. I made hime angry cause I kept bumping into some guys tank while he was trying to disarm a mine.

If some one could forward this message to viper or if you (viper) read this yourself.

I am truely sorry for bumping into that tank. I was totally unaware that I was doing that. I thought I was helping the player by keeping my apc close to his tank and firing. I was worried that a sbh would jump in and steal his tank given that he was repairing in the field.

All I noticed was the mine exploding which killed the dude attempting to disarm it. Some other player was looking at the tank and when I messaged him, I was wondering why he did not jump into it. I wish I would have been given a chance to explain my actions before you booted and banned me. Have played on your server for some time without problems. Hope to do so again in the future. Again, I am sorry for bumping into that tank. I promise I will never bump a tank on your server again.

FUD is infamous in this respect. Indiscriminate banning happens no matter skill level, respect for rules, or whatnot.

If you haven't been introduced to thier thug Taskbot yet, prepare yourself for insta/perma banning forever just for posting this at all.

And I quote:

Here you will find a list of the rules for our server. They're designed to be vague for the most part, because we enjoy banning people. If you don't like them, piss off and go play somewhere else so you can let someone in who doesn't whine. As a general rule, we enjoy when you make posts on n00bstories.com or the official Renegade forums about our rules. We all send the link to each other and take turns laughing at you and calling you names. We don't care what you think about our rules. Hell, we don't care about you, either.

If you want to challenge us to a match, /page one of the members on WOL or email me at dethlord69@hotmail.com, we will try to work something out. Please don't suck ass, though. We don't like wasting time. No point-whore teams will be played, so that discounts 99% of the clans on the ladder anyways.

- 1) No fatties. This rule is strictly enforced. If you are found to be a fatty, you will be banned without notification, unless we tell you to get outside and work, fatty.
- 2) No whining. There will be zero tolerance for whining, as it usually comes from people who suck or just got owned very badly. If you happen to be one of those two types of people, stop sucking and you will magically not be in situations that would make you whine in the first place. Otherwise, take the bitching elsewhere you jackass.
- 3) No lag complaints. If you're lagging, chances are it's your fault, because this server is on a T3. Our clan members in Canada regularly have no problems connecting to this server, and it's 1500 miles from them. Turn off your wanker filesharing programs, and turn off your messaging programs too because you have more important things to do than talk to people who aren't playing Renegade with you. If that doesn't work, get off the 56k or go find another server, because you're not helping your team if you're warping all over the frickin' place. (Occasionally, the school network is overloaded and EVERYONE will experience some lag. It is acceptable to bitch a little about this, but you will still be banned if you carry on about it.)
- 4) No accusations of cheating/hacking/whatever else you can come up with for an excuse. There are no wallhacks, aimbots, or anything else out for Renegade, to the best of my knowledge. This is not Counter-Strike. If you get owned it is due to your lack of skill. Accept it and move on. This goes along with rule #2, and our solution is the same: tell you to stop sucking so you wouldn't AIMBOT is autoflagged with BlazeRegulate now, if you say it three times fast you'll be kicked automatically. Please test it out, we like seeing people get automagically kicked.

- 5) No telling other people what they can and cannot do on our server. You are not the judge of that, we are. Chances are if we see this happen we'll ban you and not the offender. Do not presume that your judgment of a situation will be the same as ours.
- 6) Besides the above offenses, you may be banned without warning at any time so that a member of FUD can get on the server, as they take priority over you. If this happens, nothing personal, and the ban list is cleared frequently so you'll be able to get back on in a day or so. You can prevent this by not being the lowest scorer, especially if you've been in the game a long time. We assume low score + high play time = ban. Again, this is not personal, you just happen to be the least contributing member at the time someone who kicks ass wants to get in on the game.
- 7) If your ping is over 500, you will be banned and made fun of after you are gone.

If you are idle, you will be banned. If there was some urgent reason you were idle for hours at a time and you're sad you got booted, cry us a river, build us a bridge, and jump off it so we don't have to listen to you anymore.

9) No telling admins how to run the server. If you think someone should be banned, or you don't like having radar on, or you think we should start everyone off with 929323273 credits so you can try out your uber-1337 stupid ass n00b strategies, or you want to play Cops and Robbers, or you want snipe-only, make your own server. We spend a lot of time keeping this one running, and it'll be on its own dedicated line soon, and that's not cheap. When you grow up and make TEH BIG MONIES!@!!11 like us, you can get your own server. Until then, stop the whining.

10) NO BASE TO BASE. This counts for the commonly abused ones on Field (GDI) and Islands (GDI), as well as a few other ones which thankfully aren't so well known. You will be banned without warning if you are caught shooting the enemy base from your own.

11) If you are a n00b, you'll be banned. If you're shooting at your own teammates, or blocking people from repairing, or wasting mines, or not coordinating mining with the team, or acting like a fuckup, you are considered to be a n00b and will be banned without explanation or warning.

12) No tunnel beacons on Field. We grow tired enough of pansy point-whoring on this map as it is, and this is one simple way to cut down on a decent chunk of that point-whoring. Beacons outside the tunnels are OK, but you will be banned without warning if you are caught placing beacons in the tunnel.

13) No dropping multiple beacons in your own base because you think it's cool to see stuff get nuked or ioned without exploding. If you want to watch pretty light shows, go buy a PS2 and get a copy of Fantavision.

14) You can be kicked for prior offenses if the admins see fit. In fact, this is an almost certain prospect. The moral of this story is that we have a long memory and an itchy ban finger.

You may be wondering if you have any rights here. The short answer is no. Let me reiterate: Wisecracks, remarks, slander, or anything else you might think would be witty can be viewed as idiocy by the moderators. Racial comments are immediately cause for ban, so if you've got something against someone else, keep it to yourself. Moderators will be the judge of your behavior and will enforce it with a judgement of their own. Roughly translated, we don't care who you are, if we feel like getting on or we don't like you or you have too many vowels in your name or you're an HPB or any other variety of things, you can and will be banned with no warning. It's our server, we can do that.

Don't like it? Run your own server, we'll be happy to play by your rules on it.

Now, for those of you who are still reading, here is what we do want: Teamwork, ingenuity, cooperation, communication, and a lot of asskicking. It's pretty simple, really."

Notice the last line. Even if you meet those criteria, refer to rule #6. And if that one won't work, they will make one up that does. :rolleyes:

Go to n00bstories and type in "Taskbot7" in the n00b search for fun. No less than 17 entries, but they claim it's our ignorance of thier rules that gets us banned.

Just don't go there anymore. There isn't all that much teamwork there, but there sure are alot of fatties (see rule #1)

Sounds like I wont be playing on that server any more. Kinda sucks, it seems like there are two servers left that don't have lag, FUD's and the pitts. With the pitts, I get disconnected every five minutes and now a permanent ban from FUD.

Whatever will I do?

Believe me, I sympathize. That was the point I was trying to make with members of FUD. There aren't many good servers left. Even fewer with good admins.

HKadad isn't too bad either, but very few mods, and it's out of Hong Kong so ping spikes are frequent.

I like a few others, but the amount of good, lag free servers is getting a LOT smaller now.

If I could host, I would.....

Kirby, stop whining. You know, I find it very funny how quick you are to point to taskbot banning you because I was the one who originally did it. I requested it when I saw you come on because I had seen you post on the forums and I didn't want you around because I dislike your attitude and your opinions. That basically means I dislike you. It's not hard to grasp this concept. Just because our server exists does not mean you DESERVE to play on it, or you automatically get the right to play there. We screen it all the time and remove people we don't want on there. You fell into that category. Have a nice day, don't drown in your tears.

I think I am following. Just want to play on a lag free server. Since the choices are very small for lag free servers - I will apologize for violating fud's rules and hope they unban me. What else can I do???? I want to play and they got me by the balls! If allowed back into their server, I will keep my mouth shut and play the game I love, lag free.

If they choose not to allow me to play... I will find a server with minimal lag and play on that one. I just want to play the game... that is all. I don't get into the fighting that goes back and forth on this board.

Ahhhhhh, and thus my point to this young initiate to the FUD ban club.

His plea on these boards is worthless because of that very fact. I imagine you will allow him back in because of the pressure now on you to prove my allegations baseless, even though you and I both know that you could have cared less if, I hadn't showed up here.

Try to keep up here, ok?

It's not as if you are being "fair and evenhanded" and the "n00b" Kirby did something wrong. You were just reacting like a child would.

"I'm banning you, because I don't like you, even though you didn't do anything wrong, play by the rules, and are a team player."

My favorite contradictory quote from FUD: "FUD > all "

I just find that hilarious considering you ban the competition for playing better. Yup, you guys are the best!!!

Even if I did beat him and apologized - I was going to be banned no matter what. Just so you know, I hate it when people repair in the field. I was just trying to prevent the guys (not viper's) tank from being stolen by an sbh. Which is what happened.

Ban the competition for being better? Don't flatter yourself.

Joroe has a legitimate complaint, and the only reason viper banned him is because he didn't apologize for it because it wasn't a big deal. He has since apologized and as far as I know viper will unban him. Your situation is different, as the "we don't like you clause" is applied. We have nothing against joroe, really. This also has nothing to do with "pressure" from you, as if that was enough to unban someone you'd probably be allowed on our servers. Your presence changed nothing because I had already read this before you posted and was discussing a course of action. You just want some piece of the action, as if we owe you something because we dislike you. My advice to you is to dig a nice hole, crawl in it, and pull a rock over the hole so we don't have to read any more of your whining. I also suggest not crying while in the hole as you will drown.

You didn't get banned for playing well, as you didn't even get a chance to play on our server. If I remember correctly you were banned after about a minute. Inconsistency is the first sign that a story is false, AS YOURS SEEMS TO BE.

I highly doubt you remember the instance of my banning, and taskbot admitted in a page he did it, because "I was a #$$%^".

Are you taskbot, or is this another inconsistency you are scrambling to explain yet again.

Oh, and yes, I do get a vote, as we are no longer on your server, which consequentially has no effect on any aspect of my "democratic" response to your idiotic, inconsistent, drivel. Here is the story, as it happened:

My friend Mahkra and i were playing. Mahkra's tank got c4'd on the field by a cloaker. He ran that cloaker over, and, seeing the apc close by to defend his tank from any other cloakers that might try to steal it (ie, running them over) got out to repair the c4.

jroe started ramming his tank, which moved the c4 out of his view, so he had to move to repair it. eventually, the c4 blew up (with about half a slit left to repair) and killed mahkra. it also damaged his tank, but since he had been repairing it, the tank survived.

about 30 seconds later, the tank was stolen. it took me about 2 shots from my med to kill it, so no real harm done.

however, mahkra had been ALT-5-ing (hold position) when jroe was ramming him. after i blew mahkra's ex-tank up, i pm'ed jroe, saying "thisis what happened; it was your fault, don't do that in the future", in shorter, more curse-filled phrases (something like "he was trying to repair the fucking C4; next time don't make your teammate lose his fucking tank"). if he had just replied "sorry, won't happen again," i'da dropped it. jroe is in general, a good player.

but something musta gotten under his skin, cause he started telling me off. (like, "it was his fault for getting out in the field" ... me: we were watching out for cloakers" him "yada yada yada" me: i don't have time for this.) so i banned him.

he's unbanned now; it was just a "temp ban".

and two interesting notes: 1. that is the first tank mahkra has ever "lost" in over a month and a half of playing; and 2: mahkra and i always put a bunch of remote c4 on our tanks before taking them out, so that if they're ever stolen, we can blow them, not lose a tank, and get points for killing an enemy tank.

unfortunately mahkra died from the enemy c4, so i had to kill the tank myself.

P.S. wanna know whats fun? buy a mammy on field or under. cover it with remote c4. get out on the field and let the cloaker steal it. blow it up. get pints for killing a mammy. fun, no? (sepscially if you wait till he takes it into his base. get a kill or two at the same time, ya know?

sounds pretty close to what happened as I seen it also. My bad for not paying attention to the "hold position" I did not realize I was hitting the tank. again my bad. I did not think I was arguing, however, I could see where one would think I was complaining. My whole point was Mahkra died from the c4 blast and another gdi player had an oppertunity to jump into the open tank. For some reason he did not jump into the tank. I was asking him why he did not jump in the tank, I was not asking mahkra anything, it was another player I was asking. Then I got pm'ed by viper, who was pretty angry with me about losing Mahkra's tank.

Anyways I do apologize, it says whine free server and I was whining, it is your server, your rules, and I won't cause trouble when allowed back in.

again, sorry

Kirby I would not call it sucking up... like I said before, I like to play the game on lag free servers. I have always found fud's servers to be a good place to play the game I love. It was my hope in starting this thread to have a discussion about what happened. For myself, it was never to prove my point or anything like that. I just wanted to find out what happened and correct the problem. I think I have accomplished that at least I hope I did. It was not my intention to prove a point. For me, I just wanted to clear the air with viper. Whatever happened between you and fud is between you guys. I just want to play the game.

I agree with you in that there rules and how they kick can be harsh. However, it is their server, they can do what they want and say what ever they want. I understand that whenever I choose to play on their server.

Again, I love the game, I have fun on their server, I did not want a misunderstanding to stop my enjoyment. If it is your perception I "kissed up" I am sorry. My true intention was clearing the air. I really try to avoid the back and forth fighting, for me, that is non-productive.

Yes, I see now that Viper has related what happened, you were at fault. Enjoy your games on FUD. I am glad they saw the rational way of it this time. You are a rarity in that they allowed you back in. I have never seen them let someone back in, no matter the circumstances.

Have fun.

Hate to intervene, but Viper clears a shitload of people off the temp/banlist on a daily basis. Almost no-one within reason is banned for more than a day. Unless the clan explicitly tells Viper not to remove the ban, well, then. Hmm.
